DRIVE

Of Germans Against Verdun Fortress Has Changed Its Direction

FOLLOWING CAPTURE OF HAUCOURT

French Continue Nibbling Tactics East of Meuse

INTERESTING SITUATION

Developing On Eastern Division Where Germans Give Signs of Instituting An Offensive—Russians Continue to Make Progress In the Caucasus Campaign—News of War.

Following up sharply their capture of the village of Haucourt, in the Avocourt-Bethincourt salient northwest of Verdun, the Germans have shifted the line of their attack slightly to the east, driving against the lines between Bethincourt and Chantancourt and penetrating a first-line trench there.

The locality is in the vicinity of Dead Man's Hill, where Germans and French have been battling at intervals for weeks for control of dominating positions. Paris declares that the Germans were driven by a counter-attack from the greater part of the captured position and that they now occupy some advanced sections along the front about 300 yards.

East of the Meuse the French are continuing their nibbling tactics, and report continued progress in German communicating trenches southwest of Fort Douaumont.

An interesting situation is developing on the eastern front where the Germans give signs of instituting an offensive. Troop movements on the Dvina front are prevented by the thawing of the marshes, but south of Dvinsk the Russian artillery has opened a violent fire in the vicinity of Vidz and in the Narocz lake region.

In the Caucasus campaign the Russians are making continued progress along the Upper Tchoruk, in Turkish Armenia, driving the Turks westward after dodging them from fortified positions. The Ottoman troops are offering stiffer resistance along the Black Sea coast, attempting attacks on the Russian positions east of Trebizond but failing to achieve results, according to Petrograd.

London announces that the British steamer Simla, a Peninsular and Oriental liner of 5344 tons, has been sunk, with the loss of 11 members of the Asiatic crew. Dispatches last night carried unverified reports of the sinking with the suggestion that the Simla, supposed to be in the government service, might have been the transport reported in a previous message to have been sunk off the Greek coast.

The Spanish ambassador at Berlin has been instructed by the cabinet to ask from Germany an explanation of the sinking of the Spanish steamer Vigo and a definition of the German submarine policy with regard to the rights of neutrals.

INVESTIGATION OF ABUSES IN CIVIL SERVICE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Columbus, April 7.—Definite plans for an investigation of reported civil service violations by state officials were made today by the state civil service commission when it set next Tuesday morning at the time for the first public hearing. This was arranged on advice of Acting Attorney General Henry S. Ballard, who will assist in the inquiry. Both democrats and republicans will be summoned to tell what they know of alleged violations.

George L. Stoughton, secretary of the industrial commission, will be asked whether he wrote letters to civil service employees of the commission inquiring names of good political workers. Charles B. Morris, director of the democratic press bureau, also will be summoned to tell what he has learned of state officials' action in alleged violation of the law.

"This inquiry will have no politics in it," said Chairman Z. B. Campbell of the civil service commission. "We want to get at the bottom of the reports circulated recently, regardless of who may suffer by it."

C. & M. V. TRAIN

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Cincinnati, April 7.—The Cincinnati and Muskingum Valley train from Zanesville, O., to this city left the rails near Tower Hill, O., early today and was not brought to a stop until it had run on the ties for more than 200 yards. A number of passengers were shaken up but none was seriously injured.

OUTWITTED

At Own Game Villa Forces Suffered Moral and Actual Defeat

SLIPPING UNSEEN INTO MOUNTAINS

Has Been Method Upon Which Success Depended

AMERICANS' GREAT POWER

In Striking Blow After Coming Upon Bandit's Forces, Surprised and Demoralized Them—Troopers Compelled to Walk and Lead Their Horses Through and Over Mountains.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) General Pershing's Camp at San Gueronimo Ranch, Mexico, April 3.—By Aeroplane and Motor Truck to Columbus, N. M., April 7.—News of the second Villa defeat, which reached here late today was taken as a sharp moral defeat for the Villa forces, because the American cavalrymen had outwitted them at their own game, that of slipping unseen through mountain passes.

Losses to the Villa forces given as thirty or more dead and forty horses captured in the Aguas Calientes fight, are not considered as much significant as the manner in which the coup was executed.

Ever since the Villa forces retreated from Guerrero, the presence of Villa band in some force between Guerrero and Bachiniva, 55 miles north of Guerrero, has been known. It also was evident from the reports to headquarters that these Villa forces under Manuel Lopez were inclined to rely for safety on their intimate knowledge of the mountain passes. That they were relying on nothing else than their speed in making for difficult passes was indicated last Friday, March 31, when two American scouts inadvertently frightened the entire band, estimated about 200 out of the town of Bachiniva, and into mountains.

Saturday and Sunday two separate columns of cavalrymen were on the trails which this band had taken. In spite of fast riding, or rather fast walking, for it is by walking and leading their horses most of the way that the cavalry gets around and sometimes directly over the mountain tops, neither of these troops was in position to catch the Villa forces.

Apparently that it was what the bandits had expected but they had not accounted for the unexpected striking power of the American cavalrymen. The Americans were not relying upon merely two columns of troops to box the Villa forces.

Below Bachiniva, where either the Villa forces did not know of their presence, or where they considered them too far away to be a menace, were 200 negro cavalrymen under Colonel W. C. Brown.

These negroes have the reputation of being among the best trail riders in the army. They caught the Villa forces after the bandits had ridden only a few hours out of Bachiniva. Like Dodd's fight at Guerrero, it was a case of quick work for a few moments with rifles and then a chase. The Americans did not stop to report what they had done, but stayed on the trails so that tonight, two days after the fight, no details have reached headquarters camp other than the bare report of a skirmish and the stories of the two Mexican ranchmen giving the location of the encounter and small losses.

A good sized portion of the bandits with whom Villa raided Columbus, N. M., March 9, already have been accounted for by the expeditionary force.

At least 46 of them and probably 50 or 60 were killed in the Guerrero fight. About two dozen others were wounded and left behind by Villa in his flight from the border have been held by the American authorities at points along the line of communication. Reports have come in indicating that some others deserted Villa. Most of these claimed that they were forced to join his band.

In addition, about 350 others were scattered over the mountains of this section in the fight at Guerrero.

VILLA'S BROTHER IS RELEASED; AFTER HIS ARREST IN HAVANA.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Havana, Cuba, April 7.—Colonel Hipolito Villa, brother of Francisco Villa, who was arrested here on February 7 at the request of the American minister and has been pending extradition proceedings, has been released. He is under indictment in Texas on the charge of complicity in cutting a railway line near El Paso last December in an attempt to hamper the movement of Carranza forces through American territory to attack the Villa forces in Mexico, but the Cuban secretary of state announced that the United States had failed to produce evidence warranting his extradition.

AMERICANS IN MONTEREY FLEE MEXICO FOR U. S. IN BOX CARS

Americans leaving Monterey, Mexico, in box cars.

Practically all the Americans left in Monterey, Mexico, recently left that city for the United States in box cars. These people have hitherto braved all dangers, run all risks, and heroically stuck to their posts in the war-torn country, but conditions have reached such a critical stage that even the most daring have abandoned their vocations to return to the land of safety until less troublous times permit return to their mines and ranches.

Street Railway Company in Toledo Asks Permission to Charge Straight 5 Cents

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Toledo, April 7.—Application for an injunction to restrain the city from interfering with collection of increased street car fares was filed this morning in federal court by the Toledo Railways & Light company. The company alleges that the existing rates, six tickets for 25 cents, except during rush hours morning and evening when three cent fare prevails, are inadequate. These rates were fixed voluntarily by the company after expiration of its franchise. In the pleading, it is admitted that wages of motormen and conductors are too low but it is contended that the company's revenues are insufficient to warrant an increase or to provide better service. Straight five cent fare with universal transfers is proposed.

The company, in answer to the city's application for a receiver on account of an eleven days tie-up of all lines, alleges that cars are not operated because the city officials cannot furnish adequate protection for non-union men. The company denies the city's allegation that it is insolvent and asks that the application for a receiver be denied.

NAME HARDING FOR CHAIRMAN OF CONVENTION

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Chicago, April 7.—Senator Warren G. Harding of Ohio was selected temporary chairman of the Republican convention, by unanimous vote of the sub-committee on arrangements of the republican national committee today on the first ballot. The committee declined to discuss presidential possibilities. Chas. Hilles, of New York, chairman of the sub-committee declared the committee was confident of success for the republican party next fall.

The recent announcement of Col. Theodore Roosevelt concerning the national convention was "no surprise," said.

The announcement, Chairman Hilles said would have no effect on the selection of a temporary chairman. "It is a significant fact," he said, "that in a majority of the states uninstructed delegates are being selected and that the present national committee members are being endorsed for re-election. This condition bears out the prophecy that the convention will meet with an open mind and will be prepared to name the best man for the place."

Other convention officers chosen were: Lafayette B. Gleason, of New York, secretary; William F. Stone, of Baltimore, sergeant at arms and George L. Hart, of Roanoke, Va., official reporter.

HARDING FEELS HONORED.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Washington, April 7.—Senator Harding, notified of his selection accepted and received congratulations from republican colleagues.

"It is a very great honor," said Senator Harding. He said he could not now forecast his opening address.

MEDICAL AUTHOR DEAD.

Edinburgh, April 7.—Sir Alexander Russell Simpson, formerly dean of the Faculty of Medicine and emeritus Professor of Midwifery of the University of Edinburgh, died last night. Sir Alexander was born in 1845, was the author of a number of medical works and a widely known authority.

Bank Failure Being Probed By Grand Jury

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Cincinnati, April 7.—The United States grand jury Friday began an investigation of the failure of the First National Bank of New Richmond, Ohio. District Attorney Bolin and his assistants examined witnesses after witnesses. Many of the witnesses were depositors who had lost their savings in the crash, others were stockholders who had just received notice from Washington that they would be assessed on their stock to meet the deficit. It is expected that the grand jury will report Saturday morning to Judge Hollister.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS WERE SUSPENDED FOR JOINING "FRATS"

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Hamilton, O., April 7.—Following the adoption of a resolution by the board of education barring membership in any fraternity, secret society or organization among the pupils of the public schools of Hamilton, Superintendent Darrel Joyce and principal Charles H. Lake of the High School yesterday suspended three boys on the ground that they would not give sufficient proof that they were not affiliated with a high school fraternity. As the result of this action proceedings have been instituted in the common pleas court by the Chi Sigma Chi fraternity against members of the board of education to enjoin them from enforcing the resolution against the fraternity and asking a court order that the suspended pupils be reinstated in the Hamilton High School.

VICE DISTRICT CLOSED.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Sandusky, O., April 7.—City commissioners last night ordered City Manager Waite to close the vice district. Half a dozen houses and 50 women are affected. Public sentiment, brought about by newspaper publicity is responsible for the clean-up.

AMERICAN WOMAN HONORED.

Paris, April 7.—The French government has conferred on Mrs. Edith Wharton the legion of honor for her relief work in behalf of French war sufferers.

DAY IN CONGRESS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Washington, D. C., April 6.—The congressional business today is thus summarized:

Senate.

Met at noon.

Resumed debate on army reorganization bill.

House.

Met at 11 a. m.

Debate on rivers and harbors appropriation bill continued.

Military committee arranged to hear Secretary Baker Saturday on the army appropriation bill.

Insular committee recommended passage of Philippine independence bill as it passed the senate.

POISON PEN

ALLEGED TO HAVE BEEN USED BY WOMAN WRITING TO OTHERS.

Arrested This Morning by United States Authorities—Jealousy Thought to be Motive.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Cleveland, April 7.—Miss Anna Gemmell of Salem, O., was indicted by the United States grand jury today on a charge of sending objectionable matter through the mails. According to District Attorney E. S. Wertz, the government will seek to prove that Miss Gemmell sent a score of "poison pen" letters and postcards to Miss Vera Zeigler, also of Salem.

Miss Gemmell, who is 40 years old, was arrested this morning. She is a stenographer and the indictment charges objectionable matter was sent by mail to several different persons, including Mrs. M. J. Grable, wife of the pastor of the First Christian church of Salem. Miss Gemmell is a member of the church and a number of the recipients of letters are also of this congregation, which, federal officers say, had been split by the workings of the "poison pen," the wielding of which is charged to Miss Gemmell.

Miss Gemmell was placed on trial before the church officers some time ago in connection with the cases but none of her accusers appeared and the matter was dropped by the church organization.

Federal officials say that the "poison pen" notes first began to appear after O. R. Barrett, a drug clerk in Salem, for whom Miss Gemmell had formed an attachment, began paying attentions to Miss Vera Zeigler. Barrett is now in Seattle, Wash.

MANSFIELD GIRL OFFERS SERVICES AS A WAR NURSE

Columbus, April 7.—Adjutant General Hough today received a letter from Miss Ethel Hobson of West Mansfield, an 18-year-old girl, offering her services as a nurse in case of war. It was the first offer of service which has been received by state authorities from a girl or woman.

HOCKING VALLEY WRECK.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Gallipolis, O., April 7.—A wreck occurred on the Ohio river division of the Hocking Valley railroad near Radcliffe station last night. Fifteen coal cars left the rails and were demolished. No one was hurt.

NO BOMBS FOUND ON SHIP HELD UP BY LONE STOWAWAY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Delaware Breakwater, Del., April 7.—The British steamer Matoppo whose captain and crew of 55 men were held up singlehanded on the high sea last week by Ernest Schiller, now under arrest in New York, resumed her voyage today to Vladivostok. The steamer sailed from New York, March 29, with a cargo of barbed wire and railroad ties for the Russian government.

The Matoppo has been in harbor here more than a week while a search of the ship was made for supposed bombs which Schiller said he had placed in her hold. Depositions for use in the charge of conspiracy brought against Schiller have been obtained by the federal authorities from Captain Bergner and members of the crew.

TWO WOMEN DROP DEAD IN NEWARK

Mrs. Louise J. Briggs, sixty-eight, 63 Canal street, dropped dead on the rear porch of her home shortly after noon today. Death, according to Coroner W. L. Jackson, was due to heart disease. No funeral arrangements have been made.

Neighbors say that Mrs. Briggs had been in poor health for the past several months, and this morning complained of a pain in the region of her heart. About 12:20 John Athey, living in the rear of the Briggs home, was passing the house and saw Mrs. Briggs lying on the porch. An overturned wash tub lay at her side.

Athey, supposing the woman had met with an accident while emptying the tub, stopped to give assistance. An examination disclosed that the woman was dead. He sent for Criss Brothers ambulance and the body was taken to the Criss parlors. Dr. Jackson later pronounced death due to heart disease.

The deceased is survived by a niece, Mrs. Sidney Carpenter, a nephew, Clyde Orr, of this city and a brother, living at Amherst, O.

Mrs. Elizabeth Irwin.

Mrs. Elizabeth Irwin, widow of W. J. Irwin, who died about four years ago, dropped dead at the home of her mother, Mrs. Melissa Claggett, in sixteenth street, Thursday night at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Irwin, who had been blind for a great many years, made aprons for the blind commission.

She was in her usual health and went up stairs at the Claggett home about 8 o'clock. She fell upon reaching the second floor and died instantly. Mrs. Irwin was 45 years old and is survived by her mother, two sons, Russell, 16, and Forrest, 13, three brothers, Benjamin and Charles Claggett of Union Station, Oden Claggett of Newark, Mrs. Emma Wilson of Eden, Mrs. Leo Ewing of Union Station, and Miss Anna Claggett of the home.

The deceased has been a member of the Baptist church for twenty-five years, and the funeral services will be held on Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the Primitive Baptist church in Western avenue and interment will be made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

REVENUE MEN IN FIGHT WITH MOONSHINERS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Lexington, Ky., April 7.—Word reached here today that following a battle between revenue officers and moonshiners at Cranks Creek in Harlan county, Washington Garrett, considered by the officers to be the most notorious moonshiner in the state was killed. The report stated that while more than 100 shots were fired none of the government men were hit. The federal authorities have been after Garrett for years and the fight took place when they surprised a still and Garrett and his men attempted to escape into the mountains.

COMMISSIONER OF HIGHWAYS LETS CONTRACTS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Columbus, April 7.—The second largest road contract letting in the history of the department was made today by Highway Commissioner Cowen. Forty-two jobs in 30 counties, calling for improvement of 94 miles of roadway, composed the total of about $1,465,000 worth of contracts. This marked the opening of the 1916 road building season.

YARD WORKERS ON NEW YORK CENTRAL WANT RECOGNITION.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) New York, April 7.—Striking yard workers of the New York Central railroad have threatened today to extend the strike to other cities involving possibly 9,000 to 12,000 unless their demands for recognition of their union were granted. The strikers say they are asking also for an increase of three per cent in wages and for a ten-hour working day. Railway officials assert that recognition of the union is the chief point at issue. The strikers include car cleaners, baggagemen and track inspectors. Union officials estimate the number of men on strike today at about 2,400, while the railway officials say that only 500 are out.

DODD

Is Expected Soon to Again Encounter Bands of Villa Brigands

BANDIT CHIEF IS AT CIENEGUILLAS

Ten Miles South of Satevo, Says Report

GATHERING HIS FORCES

If He Succeeds In Getting Force of 1,000 Men Together He Would Be Able to Give American Advance Guard a Hard Battle Before Reinforcements Arrive.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) El Paso, April 7.—Advance guards of the American expedition hunting Villa are operating today near Satevo and news that Colonel Dodd's cavalry has again come into contact with the Villa force is expected. The region is between Satevo and Parral, where Villa is reported to be heading, is infested with numerous bands of Villa brigands.

American refugees from the Benito Juarez district say that if Villa should succeed in uniting these bands he would have a force of at least 1000 men and would be in position to give the advanced American troops a hard battle before reinforcements arrive.

The latest official information from the front showed that American cavalry had penetrated south of San Antonio, Chihuahua, and was still moving southward hard on the trail of the bandits.

CARRANZA TROOPS AT CHIHUAHUA CITY.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) San Antonio, April 7.—Francisco Villa was at Chihuahua ten miles south of Satevo on April 4, according to General Luis Guitierrez, commanding the Carranza troops in Chihuahua. General Bell received this information from Chihuahua and transmitted it to General Funston today. American cavalry are pushing forward along the trails to and beyond Satevo.

Carranza troops were reported today by American Consul Fletcher to be concentrating in the vicinity of Chihuahua City. The reason for such concentration was unexplained, but officers at Major General Funston's headquarters assumed that it was part of the de facto government's plan of co-operation in the pursuit of Villa, who, according to reports is trailing south beyond Chihuahua.

NEW DIRIGIBLE BREAKS LOOSE FROM MOORINGS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Pensacola, Fla., April 7.—The new dirigible airship recently brought to the aviation station here for experimental use in connection with aerial and water maneuvers by the navy, broke away from its moorings in a high wind early today and rising rapidly soon was lost to view. Telephone notices were sent to Mobile and other points to the westward, warning the residents to be on the look-out for the big craft. No one was aboard, but the dirigible was fully inflated and naval officers said there was nothing to prevent its remaining aloft for many hours.

The wind was blowing briskly from the southeast when the dirigible slipped its moorings, shot quickly to the upper currents and quickly swept away toward the west. A later shift in the air currents made naval officers fear the dirigible may have been carried out to sea.

The airship is said to be worth $50,000 to $60,000, and is practically new. It was received here only a few days ago. How it happened to break away has not been determined.

Preparations were made to pursue the escaped craft in aeroplanes as soon as weather conditions permit.

BIRTH RECORD IN CUYAHOGA COUNTY FOR MARCH BROKEN.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Columbus, O., April 7.—Doctor "Stork" broke all records in Cuyahoga county in March, with a record of nearly 1,900 births, according to figures made public today by Dr. Morton W. Bland, state registrar of vital statistics.

This is said to be the largest number of births reported from any one county in Ohio for any month, and compares with a total of 1,400 for February. Dr. Bland attributes the big report to the campaign made by his department to have physicians report deaths births promptly.

WILL OBSERVE ARBOR DAY ON NEXT FRIDAY

The public schools of the city are observing the annual spring vacation and for that reason Arbor Day is not being observed officially today.

However, Superintendent Wilson Hawkins has issued a general order for its observance next Friday by all the schools of the city.

If the weather permits the high school program will be given on the lawn in front of the building. The sophomore class will have charge and the program will be under the personal direction of Mr. H. M. Beatty, a member of the faculty. The exercises will be very interesting and all friends of the school are invited to be present.

A number of the high school boys have volunteered to go into the woods some day next week and secure different specimens of young trees. These will be planted on the White Athletic field and it is expected that at least fifty new trees will be planted. The work will be done under the direction of competent supervisors.

ARBOR DAY IS OBSERVED IN OHIO SCHOOLS

(Associated Press Telegram) Columbus, April 7.—Arbor Day was observed in public schools of Ohio today but few municipalities planted trees or observed Arbor customs common a few years ago, according to reports received here. In many trees along their streets and highways on Arbor Day, failed to do so today on account of lack of funds.

The number of stars visible in the largest telescopes has been variously stated. A few years ago an estimate of 125,000,000 was current. According to a recent estimate by Chapman and Melotte there are about 219,000,000 stars brighter than the twentieth magnitude. Professor Hale has recently stated that there is reason to hope that a 100-inch telescope would add nearly 100,000,000 still fainter stars, many of them lying beyond the boundary of the universe as at present known, and within a year or so such a telescope (i. e. a reflector) will probably be in use at Mount Wilson Observatory.

Experiments in lowland rice culture recently started in Porto Rico are arousing much interest there, because rice is the chief food consumed in the island. Porto Rico has spent approximately $5,000,000 annually during the last four years for this grain and is the largest export consumer of American-grown rice.

That a large number of Indians were once held in slavery at a settlement on Gray's Harbor, Puget Sound, a fact not generally known, is recalled by the death there of Schickelash Peto, former slave and another of the multitudinous oldest residents of the northwest, having lived 110 years, more or less.

DAYLIGHT LET INTO A LITTLE LOCAL LAD'S LIFE

R. L. TUTTLE TELLS WHAT NERV-WORTH DID FOR HIS NERVOUS SON.

Attention, parents! Are your children the victims of disordered nerves? If so, read and profit by the following:

"Nerv-Worth Co.—My boy, who is 11 years old, was troubled with catarrh since he was three years old. He was nervous and became irritable and suffered a good bit. It bothered his appetite. Did not eat like a child should. His kidneys were affected also. He lost much sleep. We gave him Nerv-Worth and noticed a change at once. His disposition became more pleasant and he had better control over his kidneys. He sleeps good now and his appetite is fine. I recommend it (Nerv-Worth) to all who have nervous and run-down children.

ANARCHISTS PLOT DEATH ALL RULERS

(Associated Press Telegram) Chicago, April 7.—Existence of an international anarchistic plot to assassinate all rulers of Europe has been discovered here according to a formal statement issued today by MacLay Hoynes, state's attorney of Cook county.

The alleged plot was unearthed by the state attorneys men while investigating the activities of Jean Crones, suspected poisoner of the guests at the banquet in honor of Archbishop Mundelein a few weeks ago.

The states attorney said that a list of the proposed assassinations was headed by the Czar of Russia and that of Emperor William was second on the list.

Reliable Laxative Relieved This Baby

Child was Badly Constipated Until Mother Tried Simple Remedy.

In spite of every care and attention to diet, children are very apt to become constipated, a condition responsible for many ills in after life unless promptly relieved.

Mrs. C. W. Wilson, of Shelbyville, Tenn., had trouble with her baby boy, Woodrow, until she heard of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. She writes, "I can safely say Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the best remedy of its kind on earth. It acts so gently and yet so surely. Little Woodrow was very badly constipated and we could find nothing that gave relief until we tried your Syrup Pepsin, which gave immediate relief."

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a compound of simple laxative herbs, free from opiates or narcotic drugs, mild in action, positive in effect and pleasant to the taste. It has been prescribed by Dr. Caldwell for more than a quarter of a century and can now be had for fifty cents a bottle.

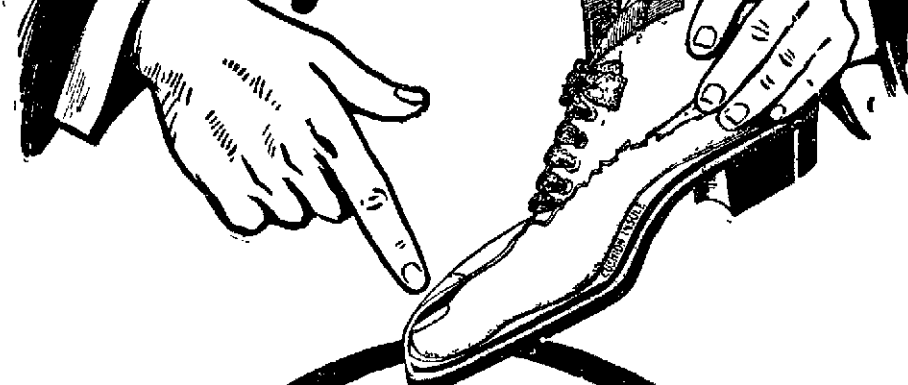

WOODROW WILSON.

In any well-stocked drug store. A trial bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can be obtained, free of charge, by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 454 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

It is now being suggested that George Bronson Rea, who was once Mount Robson, one of the loftiest peaks in the Canadian Rockies, be named Mount Cavell, in honor of Miss Edith Cavell, for whom a street in Paris already has been renamed.

Solid Comfort Plus Style

There in a nut-shell is the story of Dr. A. Reed Cushion Shoes—comfort plus style. And there's not another shoe made at any price that can equal the Dr. A. Reed Cushion Shoe in either.

It's far and away the easiest shoe on your foot. For it has a soft cushion insole that adapts itself to the sole of your foot—fills the hollows, supports the arch, and spreads your weight over your whole foot. That in itself means ease in walking. But more than that, the foot sinking down into the soft cushion insole releases the uppers—so that you can be sure you won't be bothered by corns, bunions and tired, aching, burning feet.

Up to the minute in style—you can have your choice of a big variety—everyone new and attractive. Why not come in today and see this terrific, easy, stylish

"PHONEY" STONES ARE PURCHASED BY NEWARK MAN

The man said he was a prosperous jeweler from Dayton. He looked the part. Then he proceeded to tell a Newark business man that he was seeking a location for a Newark store. That was last Monday. Today the stranger is missing. Also $400 belonging to the N. B. M.

From Monday till Thursday the Man from Dayton visited frequently with the Man from Newark. He related his plans for coming to Newark and opening a jewelry store. Thursday morning he dropped into the Newark Man's place of business and said that he had secured permission to open a small store in the lobby of the Hotel Warden, where the cigar stand now is located.

While the stranger was telling his plans, a (foreigner?), came into the place. He wanted to sell a watch. The man with the watch appeared nervous and said that he wanted to get to Canada in a hurry. The jeweler confided to his Newark friend, that the watch was evidently stolen property and could be bought cheap. The N. B. M. was not interested.

Next the newcomer exhibited several diamond ear rings and a diamond stud. The jeweler from Dayton examined the stones and gasped as he told the Newark business man their value. "They are worth $1,800," he said. "We can buy these stones and make a nice profit, but I am not known in this city and before I get to Dayton the bargain is lost."

The N. B. M. fell and supplied the necessary $400. He kept the stones while the man from Dayton showed the (foreigner?) to the depot. That was the end of the $400 and the jeweler and the foreigner.

A little later the Newark man confided to a friend that he had made a valuable purchase and upon exhibiting the stones, was told that they were "phony." A local jeweler corroborated the friend.

The Newark man had strived and saved for several years with his little earnings to accumulate the $400 and the scheme perpetrated upon him, was a severe blow. He did not tell the police. The men had left town and he did not think that the police could help him. He did not tell his friends because they would consider him "easy," so he suffered his loss and protected his pride.

HOW TO BE SLIM

If you are too fat and want to reduce your weight 15 or 20 pounds, don't starve and weaken your system, or think you must always be laughed at on account of your fat, but go to any good druggist, and get a box of Oil of Kerein capsules, take one after each meal and one before retiring at night.

Weigh yourself once a week and note what a pleasant and reliable method this is for removing superfluous fat from any part of the body.

It costs little, is absolutely harmless and a week's trial should convince anyone that it is unnecessary to be burdened with even a single pound of unsightly fat.

Should Start a Co-operative Cleanup

A COMMUNITY campaign against flies should be started early, in the winter if possible. Plans should be made for town improvement along this line. An association could be formed for this purpose. The village divided into districts and one or more members made inspectors in each district. Every town and city should have a food screening ordinance applicable to food kept for sale.

From April 15 to June 30 offer generous prizes to the children bringing in the largest number of living or recently killed houseflies. Work together for a flyless town.

DEMOCRATS HONOR ARKANSAS EDUCATOR

Dr. and Mrs. Charles H. Brough.

Dr. Charles H. Brough, a native of Mississippi, a student at Johns Hopkins University at a time when President Woodrow Wilson was a lecturer there, later a professor in a Mississippi university, and for the last twelve years head of the department of political economy in the University of Arkansas, has been nominated for governor by Arkansas Democrats. The nomination is equivalent to an election.

FISH AND GAME ASSOCIATION IS PROMISED FISH

At a meeting of the directors of the Licking County Fish and Game Protective Association held this morning, reports were made by the secretary and by Ernest Cornell regarding the prospects of securing a consignment of fish from the federal hatcheries. The association's application has been approved by Representative Ashbrook and Senator Pomerehne as well as Secretary Redfield of the department of commerce of which the fish hatcheries is a part and the only hitch possible now is that the hatchery will not be able to fill the order. The young fish secured will be planted in five streams in Licking county.

The board approved the action of the committee which this week offered prizes amounting to $15 for the best bird boxes constructed by Newark and Licking county boys and girls. Secretary Kenfrew was instructed to secure prices and designs for buttons to be given to each member of the association. The buttons will be numbered serially and members wearing them will be expected to wear them when hunting or fishing. It is believed that it will have a tendency to show property owners in the country districts that members of the association are observing the laws and trying to conduct themselves properly while on the property of others, either hunting or fishing.

The advertising committee was voted an appropriation to advertise the fact that the annual dues are now payable. All members in arrears are urged to visit the secretary's office over the Franklin bank and pay the fifty cents, secure their new membership card and help boost the work of the association which is of benefit to every hunter and angler in the county.

The proposition of stocking some of Licking county's streams with trout was also discussed and an effort will be made soon to secure permission from property owners along streams suitable for this fish to allow the creeks to be stocked and to permit members of the association to fish there.

Further plans were discussed for the meetings in the country districts this spring and summer and announcement of these plans will be made soon.

Meat Packers Inquiry Has Been Adjourned

Washington, April 7.—With the house judiciary sub-committee's hearings on Representative Norland's resolution for investigation of the meat packing industry closed temporarily without action on the resolution or an agreement between the packers and producers regarding the form an inquiry should take, committee members were today reviewing informally the mass of testimony taken during the past four days. Many witnesses were heard, the producers favoring the proposed inquiry and the packers opposing it.

The committee is expected to resume its hearings within the next two weeks when the packers will present further arguments in opposition to the resolution.

"Outbreak" In Council.

The American Tribune gives Colonel Watson C. Seward, councilman at large, a grilling without mentioning his name. That may soften the attack but everybody who read the report of last Monday night's city council meeting knows that the criticism was aimed at the fearless member who never hesitates to call a "spade a spade."

Colonel Seward is the man who had some interesting remarks to make at the last session of council and is the member who introduced the resolution calling for an investigation of the department of public safety. The Tribune characterizes the action as an "outbreak" and attributes to the man responsible for the investigation one of four motives. (1) The good of the city, (2) the desire to play politics, (3) personal grievance, (4) a desire to be spectacular.

The Tribune's treatment of the matter indicates that it believes the Colonel's object was not the welfare of Newark but one or a combination of all of the other motives. Colonel Seward has shown intelligence and industry as a member of council and his attitude at all times has been fearless. When he doesn't like a thing he says so and when he seeks information he goes right to the point.

Does anybody question the propriety of making an investigation? Is there any reason why one should not be made? Is there anything to hide?

While the department is under investigation why not go a bit farther and inquire into the purchase of the fire trucks which have been characterized as "junk"? The statement has been made in open council and by men who ought to know that the trucks in many respects do not comply with the specifications.

A Comparison.

On the basis of the outlay for the first three-quarters of the present fiscal year of the Willis administration which is $15,907,941.50, the cost of the entire year will amount to the sum of $21,210,000, an excess of cost over the last year of the Cox administration of $2,865,000. Analysis of the expenditures at the end of the year, June 30, will show that although there have been slight decreases in a few departments where the work of getting

The Mexican Campaign.

(Philadelphia Record.)

If our army is not large, we have, at least, abundant reason to be satisfied with its quality. We have not only officers and men who could quickly inspire and train a large body of recruits. But this affords no reason for not enlarging the army; it is no excuse for relying entirely upon our small regular establishment and a horde of untrained volunteers. We could not hope to get an efficient army out of perfectly raw material in less than six months, and that half year would be of incalculable importance; it would be vital.

But the quality of our army is fine. The delay in starting from Columbus was due to the necessity of bringing troops from a distance to protect the frontier while the punitive expedition was buried in Mexico. Considering the distance from which troops had to be brought, the start in pursuit was very prompt. The movement of the troops has been marked by extraordinary celerity. In view of the nature of the country and the character of the roads, the rapidity of the advance has been phenomenal.

The supply departments have been managed admirably, despite the fact that roads are very bad and the railroad has not been at our service. Funston, Pershing and Dodd have proved themselves alert, resourceful, energetic and skilled in the highest degree in the difficult art of getting men and animals forward. New records have been made in the movement of troops under adverse conditions.

The mere matter of following Villa was by no means simple. The old adage of the difficulty of finding a needle in a haystack is not inapplicable to the task of finding Villa in the Mexican mountains. Tracking the bandits would have been easy enough if it had been possible to follow them "hot foot," but that was impossible if the frontier were not to be left bare of defenders. Villa had nearly a week the start of Dodd. The people of the country were presumably not very friendly to us, even if they were not so hostile as was generally assumed. In any event, they had reason enough to be too much afraid of Villa to be forward in giving information to his pursuers. Yet Dodd and his men never lost the scent till they struck the bandits at Guerrero. Incomplete as the pursuit of Villa is at present, it is a very notable military exploit.

A large part of the work for which the punitive expedition was sent into Mexico has been accomplished. Villa may escape, but many of his men will never ride on another freight-train expedition into the United States. His band is scattered, and neither he nor any other bandit chief will for a long time find it easy to raise any considerable force of men to raid a town on the American side of the boundary.

"The Holy Stone of Newark"

(Columbus Dispatch.)

When contractors were at work constructing the Licking reservoir as an adjunct of the Ohio canal system in 1831-2, they found a huge pile of boulders near the eastern bank, which they used in riprapping the bank to protect it from wave action. The stone heap was 50 feet high and 180 feet in circumference at the base. It was, in fact, a stone mound constructed by a prehistoric people. Around the base of the mound were a number of small mounds of earth, most of which were destroyed when the larger mound was removed.

It is said that between 10,000 and 15,000 wagon loads of stone were secured from the mound at that time. Later some of the small tumuli were searched for relics of the mound-builders, with fairly satisfactory results. In connection with some of this work an antiquarian hoax, almost as pronounced as that of the "Cardiff giant" was brought out. A Newark man claimed to have exhumed from one of these tumuli a stone, on one side of which was a sketch of Moses and on the other the substance of the ten commandments. The text of the letter was Hebrew and the likeness of Moses was in the style of ancient Hebrew art.

The man claiming to have made the find had a theory that the American Indians were in fact descendants of the ten lost tribes of Israel, and the discovery of the stone was heralded as substantiating the view. A great deal was written about it and in fact it attracted attention all over the world.

Archaeologists, however, accepted the story of the find with a grain of salt, and when, after the death of the man who claimed to have made the find, his executor found in his effects a Hebrew Bible with an ideal picture of Moses as a frontpiece, very much like the sketch on the stone, and many pieces of slate on which one had practiced carving after the ancient Hebrew style, it was believed that further evidence that a great hoax had been attempted was unnecessary.

Un-American Literacy Test.

(Providence Journal.)

The Burnett Immigration bill, carrying the literacy test, passed the House by a vote of 398 to 87. Substantially the same bill, carrying the same restrictive provision, passed the House in the Sixty-third Congress, 241 to 126. President Wilson vetoed it, and it failed, narrowly, to pass over the veto. Congressman Burnett expresses confidence that he can muster votes enough—two-thirds of the House—to override a veto this time. The increased vote in its favor justifies his confidence.

The passage of the bill in the Senate is assured, though there may be a long delay. And a vote there large enough to enable the bill to survive a veto is likewise probable. The deplorable prospect is that the literacy test will become the law of the land—a radical departure from the traditional and long-established policy of our country, in which, as Mr. Wilson reminded Congress, "our people have conceived the very character of their Government to be expressed, the very mission and spirit of the nation in respect of its relations to the people outside their borders."

The persistent advocacy of the literacy test simply reveals the ignorance or heedlessness of Congress on a matter vital to the country. It is significant that not only has a mighty protest come from those parts of the country that know the immigrant, and have a direct acquaintance with the real problems of immigration, but many of the country's leading educators have denounced Congress for its action in the past.

Merit in Consular Service.

(New York Evening Post.)

The published list of nominations to office made by the President during the existing session of Congress, up to March 23, is a document in which advocates of the merit system may take genuine satisfaction. The showing as to Consular appointments is especially pleasing. A year ago Congress provided that Consuls General and Consuls should be appointed to grades, and not to specific posts, so that they might be shifted from one station to another without Senatorial action. Of twenty-five appointments made, all but two or three are in the nature of advancements from a lower grade to a higher. Appointments to all except the lowest class of secretaries to legations and embassies, again, represent promotions of experienced men. No data are furnished as to the qualifications of the men appointed as postmasters by the President, but in the hundred pages devoted to such nominations there is notable an absence of removals before the expiration of terms of office, while many incumbents whose commissions have expired, or whose offices have just been raised to Presidential grade, are confirmed in their places. All this helps to bear out the recent statement of the secretary of the National Municipal League, Clinton Rogers Woodruff, as to the "marked diminution of political activity" in connection with all these positions.

Daddy's Bedtime

How a Butterfly Chose His Bride.

(Adapted from Hans Christian Andersen.)

"ONCE upon a time" daddy told the children when they begged for a story, "there was a butterfly that went to look for a bride among the flowers. He looked at them well as they sat so primly on their stems, just like pretty girls waiting to be asked to marry. But they were all so beautiful that the butterfly found it very hard to choose. At last he flew to the daisy. You know how every girl pulls petals off the daisy and says, 'He loves me—he loves me not.' So the butterfly thought, he would find out his fortune from the daisy too. So he said: 'Sweet Marguerite daisy—Marguerite is the French way of saying daisy—you are the wisest wife of all flowers. Tell me, shall I get this one or that? To whom shall I fly?'"

"But the Marguerite was so cross at being called 'wife' that she would not answer the butterfly. He asked her three times, but she paid no attention to him, and at last he flew off. It was early spring, and the crocuses and snowdrops were out. They are charming, but too young," said the butterfly. Like most very young men he preferred older girls. So he flew to the anemones, but they were too bashful for him. The violets were too enthusiastic, the tulips too fond of snow and the jonquils too common. The apple blossoms were lovely, but they all fell off soon as the wind blew. It would not be worth while to be married for only a day, thought the butterfly. Finally he saw a sweet pea. She was pink and white and dainty, yet would look well in a kitchen. He was on the point of asking her to marry him when he happened to see a pea pod hanging beside her. 'What's that?' he cried. 'My sister,' said she. 'Some day you'll probably look like her!' And away he flew.

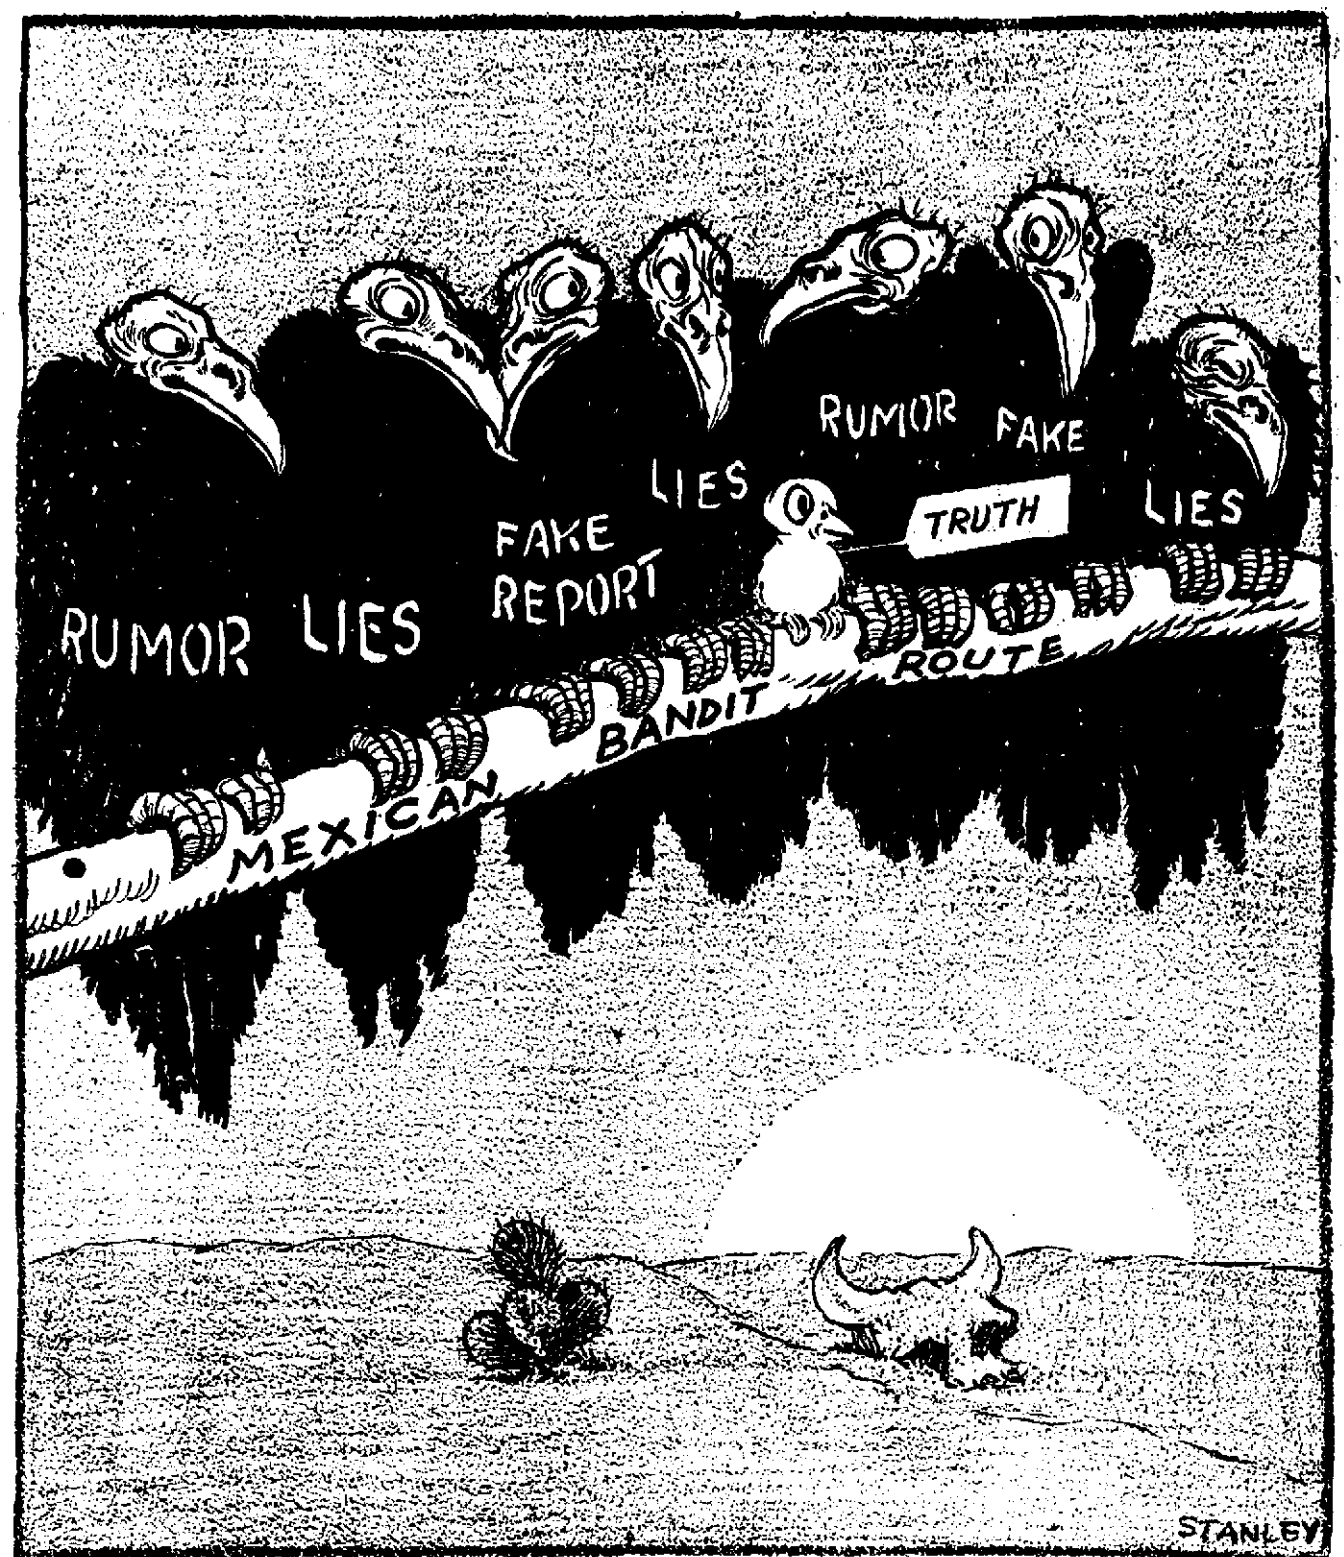

"So the spring and the summer passed and the autumn too. The flowers were still clad in beautiful garments, but youth's fragrance was gone. The butterfly liked fragrance very much, so he flew to the dahlias and hollyhocks and wild thyme. Delighted with her, he said: 'She will hardly blossom, but she is all fragrance. I will take her.'

"But the wild thyme stood stiff and still. 'Friendship only. We are both old. Let us not make fools of ourselves in our old age,' she said.

"So the butterfly got nobody and was left a bachelor. The fall rain poured, and winter's snows fell. Finally the butterfly had to crawl into a house to get warm. After he had spent a long time lying against the window pane he was caught and stuck upon a needle in a case of curiosities. 'Now I am sitting upon a stem, just like a flower,' he thought. 'It's not very good, but at least

Did You Know?

That primarily the umbrella was a sun-shade alone, its original home having been in hot, brilliant climates? In Eastern countries from the earliest times the umbrella was one of the insignia of royalty and power. The Mohratta princes of India had among their titles "lord of the umbrella." In 1555 the King of Burmah in addressing the governor-general of India termed himself "the monarch who reigns over the great umbrella-wearing chiefs of the Eastern countries." Among the Greeks and Romans the umbrella was used by ladies, while the carrying of it by men was regarded as a sign of effeminacy. The traveler, Jonas Hanway, who died in 1788, is credited with having been the first Englishman who habitually carried an umbrella. That practice he began thirty years before his death; at first he was singular and his habit was derided, but he lived to see his example commonly followed.

The End of Forbearance.

Assuming the facts to be as they now appear beyond reasonable doubt, after all that has passed between Washington and Berlin on this kind of barbarous warfare, and the assurances that have been received, this must be regarded as the climax, either of defiance of all civilized rules of naval warfare, or of stupid indifference. There is no further question of principle. It is only a question of how far this kind of murderous attack upon unarmed merchant vessels carrying cargoes of human lives, is to be tolerated by civilized nations. There is only one possible position for our Government to take. It must no doubt make sure of the facts before positively asserting that position. Then what is to be done about it?

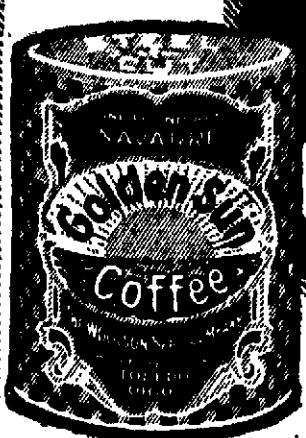

It does not seem possible that anything which is called "friendly relations" can be maintained.—New York Journal of Commerce.

How to Destroy Catarrh Germs and End Catarrh Forever

Catarrh is a germ disease and the only way to cure it so it will stay cured and never come back is to kill and drive out of your system the catarrhal germs which have found lodgment there. When the germs go the catarrh will stop. The trouble with most treatments, like sprays, salves, creams, greasy balms, lotions, etc., is that they give only temporary relief by opening up for a while the clogged head, throat and nostrils. In a little time the Catarrh comes back as bad as ever.

People who suffer continually from catarrh should drop such temporary makeshifts and get something that really gets at the root of the disease and stamps it out. There is nothing better for such cases than breathing into your nose and lungs the pleasant, soothing, healing germ destroying air of Hyomei (pronounced High-o-mei) made from purest oil of Eucalyptus and combined with other powerful healing, antiseptic and germ destroying ingredients. Hyomei penetrates and kills the inflamed, swollen membranes of your nose and throat, stops discharges, clears the passages and completely overcomes the disease by destroying the cause. For catarrh germs cannot live in your body after Hyomei reaches them. T. J. Evans and his good druggists in Newark and vicinity have long sold Hyomei on a positive guarantee of successful results or money back and find this generous policy pays. Most druggists are now giving a pocket inhaler made from hard rubber with every complete treatment sold. This makes a very simple, easy and convenient as well as a thoroughly reliable means of treating by the best known method. This dangerous and often disabling

Golden Sun Coffee

Be Curious

Curious people seldom stay satisfied—they try new things until they get better satisfied.

You should try this Golden Sun Coffee, not alone because it wins the favor of nine people in ten who try it, but also because you will likely find greater satisfaction in it than in the coffee you now use.

There is a particular flavor in Golden Sun Coffee—due to the blend—that seems to suit 'most everybody. But you must try it once to see; that's all we want you to do—try one pound and let your taste decide.

Golden Sun Coffee is steel cut by the Golden Sun process. Sold by good grocers.

Our Boys and Girls

It is not a very pleasant subject to have to speak of vermin in the hair, yet I am sure it will help many mothers whose children, through association with not too cleanly playmates or in the public schools, have unfortunately contracted these pests.

It is a good idea to heat some vinegar with which to heat the comb and then comb the hair with it, being sure to kill both the vermin and the eggs. One treatment of this kind is usually sufficient and two at the most.

Another mother I know soaked the hair with tincture of larkspur. She then made a cap for the head of a heavy towel, so as not to stain the bed linen. She did this for two nights, the first morning after the application, shampooing with soft suds and rinsing well. She applied the larkspur again the same night and in the morning shampooed with hot vinegar, which dissolved the eggs. Then good suds were used, the hair rinsed well and dried.

NO BATTLE BUT NAVAL PRACTICE.
London, April 7, 12:55 p. m.—The heavy firing heard on several evenings in Kiel bay west of Bangkop on the Danish Island of Lange land, which has given rise to rumors of a naval battle, is explained by Reuter's Copenhagen correspondent as having been due merely to German naval gunnery practice of unusual proportions. Many ships have been out each evening, firing at targets towed by fast cruisers. This practice always takes place after dark, by the use of searchlights.

NO ACTION TO BE TAKEN YET ON SUBMARINES
Washington, April 7.—President Wilson and the cabinet considered the submarine situation again today without deciding on action at this time. It was understood the situation still waits on Germany's answer to the inquiries on the recent destruction of the Sussex and other vessels.

FRECKLES

Now is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots

There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as the prescription ointment—double strength—is guaranteed to remove these homely spots.

Simply get an ounce of ointment and apply a little of it at night and morning and you should soon see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than an ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful clear complexion.

Be sure to ask for the double strength ointment as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails.

The comb and brush had had a falling out, and decided to separate. "Oh, well, the best of friends must part," they concluded.

Milady's Boudoir

Misshaped, red, scrawny, fat, awkward, nervous, ill colored, perspiring, or chapped hands are ills which the hand is heir to and not only the cause of old looking hands, but often the means of destroying ones charm.

To correct any of these shortcomings one must study the hands and find out where the trouble lies. If they are prematurely aged, neglect is most likely the cause. Some claim old looking hands as an inheritance. I do not believe this. We inherit certain tendencies rather than any unchangeable physical appearance, and most likely one has inherited one's mother's tendencies to neglect one's hands.

No doubt the hands have been kept clean and nails properly attended to, but still, I think, premature ageing is the result of neglect. The hands are hungry. This may sound queer to some, but to illustrate: Miss a meal or two and become quite hungry, then scrutinize the face closely in the mirror and you will find that hunger has cut deep lines about the lips, eyes and cheeks, where before the fast nothing but beauty and youth were reflected.

This is exactly what happens to the hands that are not properly fed. They should be well fed, so that the tissues worn out by constant use and exposure are quickly replenished.

Hands suffer much from worry and for want of rest and sleep. You may not believe it, but it is true. When you are traveling on the cars watch the hands of your companions as they move them. You will find most of them fidgeting, restless, ever moving. These are worrying hands and are thin and shapeless, the veins very prominent and the flesh ill colored.

The quiet hand is fair to look upon, the veins are covered with firm flesh and the skin is free from wrinkles. Worry makes the hand old, while serenity makes it slim and youthful.

Simpson—Berger.

Mr. Fred Simpson and Miss Flora Berger were married last Saturday by Rev. W. D. Ward at the home of the bride's brother, George Berger, 644 Evans street. They will live in Akron, where Mr. Simpson is employed as a rubber worker. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Berger residing north of the city. Mr. Simpson is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Simpson, east of Newark. The young people were attended by Mr. Asa Young and Miss Leota Wolfe.

Snelling—Lyle.

On Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock at the parsonage of the Plymouth Congregational church, Rev. G. L. Diehl officiated at the marriage of Miss Edith Lyle and Mr. Lyman Snelling. Mr. and Mrs. Snelling will reside at 67 Moul street.

Spring flowers in profusion intermingled with foliage adorned the Kilpatrick home in North Fifth street on Thursday afternoon when Mrs. R. F. Kilpatrick and Miss Mary Kilpatrick entertained with an "at home."

The dining room was arranged with jonquils, the table being centered with a wicker basket filled with the flowers and caught with yellow tulle. The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. Henry Woodbridge, Mrs. J. A. Mitchell, Mrs. Annie Grace Barrows Hatch, and Mrs. T. M. Edmonson. About one hundred guests called during the afternoon, the only out of town guest being Mrs. George French of Baltimore, Maryland.

Miss Lillian Kammerer delightfully entertained the members of her sewing club on Thursday afternoon at her home in West Church street. The hours were informally spent and luncheon was served.

Miss Emma Kammerer will entertain the members of her club this evening at her home in West Church street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Slate celebrated the forty-second anniversary of their marriage at their home in South Fourth street on Thursday. During the evening a number of self-invited guests invaded their home, pleasantly surprising them. The rooms were arranged with pink and white flowers and a buffet luncheon was served. The guests numbered about 40.

Mrs. Lee S. Pemberton was the hostess to the members of the Sun-have spent money lavishly to rid themselves of the tormenting agony of rheumatism have turned to Rheu-ma and got well.

When Rheuma goes in, poisonous out the cause of rheumatism and speedily brings comfort and health, and most druggists will admit it.

Two bottles of Rheuma will cost you a dollar of T. J. Evans or any druggist, and if this purchase does not bring you the freedom from pain and misery you expected, your money is waiting for you.

mother.

"Until the End."
The Hiles Film Company held a rehearsal of the playlet "Until the End," last evening. The heroine climbed down a fire escape and was chased around the square while trying to escape from the villain. The author, Wilbur Hiles, states that there will be another rehearsal of the company Sunday and that he expects to produce the picture at one of the local theatres in the very near future.

Solicitors Ordered Away.
Because complaints have been made to the police that money was being obtained under false pretenses, four magazine solicitors yesterday were ordered out of town under threat of arrest. One of the men made certain representations, collecting money in advance. When the receipt was issued, one of the magazines was not mentioned. Representatives of outside business houses have caused the police much trouble in the past few days.

Held Good Meeting.
There was a splendid turnout of the members of the East Side Industrial and Improvement Association at the Promholtz hall in East Main street last evening. A number of matters were taken up and discussed including the cleaning of streets and improvements of public highways of the East Side. Much interest is being taken in these meetings and they are bound to obtain some good results.

Landscape Gardener Here.
Adolphe Campe, the landscape gardener of Columbus, who set out the shrubbery in the courthouse park in this city, was a visitor in Newark today inspecting the work which he did last spring. He found the shrubbery in first class condition
but it will need a great deal of care.
The city employs a landscape gardener to care for all grounds, parks and shrubbery outside the park stone walls. As a consequence the shrubbery inside the walls is suffering for the want of care, the county commissioners claiming that it is the duty of the city to care for same.

Returned From Honeymoon.
Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hawkins returned today from their honeymoon trip to several eastern cities. The couple will be at home to their friends at 106 Neil avenue. Mr.
Hawkins resumed his duties today with the Alhambra theater orchestra.

Seriously Ill.
Miss Margaret Swern is seriously ill at her home in North Cedar street, suffering with typhoid fever.

Takes New Position.
Miss Estelle Martin of West Church street has taken a position as bookkeeper at the Sperry and Harris furniture store in North Park Place.

Will Continue Business.
Mrs. Emma Lovett Shartell, daughter of the late Captain W. A.
Lovett, proprietor of the Newark Steam Laundry, announced today that the business would be continued under her management. Mrs. Shartell stated that the same standard of efficiency would be adhered to and tendered her thanks to the patrons of the laundry during the past number of years. 7-1t

HOUSE WAS ENTERED.
During the absence of members of the family yesterday the home of Mrs. E. Lemert, 344 West Church street was entered and several articles stolen. The police this morning arrested two strangers in the city pending an investigation.

SNOW IN KANSAS
[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Kansas City, April 7.—Snow varying in depth from one to seven inches fell in Kansas last night and today. A light fall of snow in western Missouri also was reported.
Temperatures below freezing prevailing. In this city 1 1/2 inches of snow fell and the minimum temperature was 30 degrees.

Men are barred from attending trials of women in Los Angeles.

APPOMATTOX DAY TO BE CELEBRATED BY VETERAN LEGION

The following program will be rendered next Sunday, April 9, Appomattox Day, at Memorial Hall:

Assembly Bugle Call — Robert Davidson.

Song, "America"—Neal Avenue
Church Choir, Leader, Miss Simpson.

Prayer—By Chaplain.
Recitation—Mrs. H. D. Hickmann.
Recitation—Mrs. H. D. Burch.

Speech—By One Who Was There.
Taps—By Robert Davidson.
Dismissed by Chaplain.

Doxology.
Lieut. Col. Geo. E. Wells,
Commanding.
D. H. Hollister, Adjutant.

A REMINDER, COMRADES,
LEST SOME FORGET.

Next Sunday, April 9, is Appomattox Day. This being an open meeting we extend a cordial invitation to all patriotic orders and their friends to be with us and by their presence help to celebrate this, the fifty-first anniversary of Lee's surrender to Grant at Appomattox, Va.

The event marked the close of civil strife in America. Through four long years the mighty armies of Americans needed by these great commanders had struggled on the field of battle.
The story of their heroism is unsurpassed in all the annals of war. The importance of the problems they solved marked the civil war as one of the greatest in all the tides of time. Ohio's sons did more than their full share of patriotic duty;
from out of their ranks came the men who led the hosts battling for the life of the Republic. Boys from Ohio homes helped save the Union and made lasting peace between the North and South. In the closing scenes at Appomattox, Ohio's sons were in the forefront. U. S. Grant, a native of Ohio, a product of our common schools, received the token of surrender which marked the close of the mightiest civil conflict in a thousand years of history.

Come, then, friends of Encampment No. 31, Union Veteran Legion, help us celebrate in a befitting manner this Appomattox Day, Sunday,
April 9th, at 2 p. m. in Memorial Hall.

D. H. HOLLISTER, Adjutant.

Readers' Viewpoint

Bad Politics.

Editor of the Advocate.

A would-be leader of Republican "Stand Pat" Hanna politicians, made a bad break in the Tribune last night, a bad break and of itself bad politics for his party, writing under the head lines, "Outbreak in Council."

To the Stand Patter, all "outbreaks" and disclosures of crookedness, malfeasance and misfeasance on the part of Republican officials is "bad politics," "and can have no good results" for his party.

In other words, the interest and the rights of the public are of no concern to the Republican Stand Patter. He would cover up all crookedness on the part of an official no matter how much the public may be misled and imposed upon, to protect his party from criticism.

The incident referred to in the Tribune as an "Outbreak in Council" did in fact grow out of bad politics, but the outbreak was simply an ex-posure in part of such bad politics.

1. It was bad politics for the Mayor to appoint his son, untrained and unlearned, as safety director.

2. It was bad politics for the Safety Director to make war on Shively because (as he has himself said) he got his "Irish up."

3. It was bad politics in his war on Shively to pretend to not accept the resignation of Corder for the sole purpose of preventing Shively from becoming the 11th regular patrolman, and thereby retaining his place on the force. Corder resigned and quit the service over sixty days ago, and went into other business, which takes him away from the City of Newark.

4. It was bad politics for such an official as a Safety Director to play favorites, especially as against the law and the ordinances, which give to Shively the right to remain on the force.

There has been such an avalanche of "bad politics" indulged in under the present city administration that it would take up too much newspaper space to print it all.

I am neither a councilman, a patrolman, or a politician, thank the Lord. Respectfully,

FUSBUS.

Nature's Way
Is The Best

This Method Produces
Results

Nature's way is the best. That is why RA-MO-NA HERBS the wonderful vegetable tablet composed of herbs, roots, and barks, has enjoyed such a large sale
since it has been introduced here.

In other words it produces results that are satisfactory to the stomach and liver trouble, Rheumatism and inactive Kidneys are traceable to disobeying the laws of Nature, the result is Constipation and a deranged system.

RA-MO-NA-HERBS correct these ailments by teaching the true seat of disease and helping the essential organs perform their duty in a perfectly natural manner. Get RA-MO-NA HERBS today and rest assured of good health.

Granville

[Special to The Advocate]

Granville, March 7.—The steam shovel to be used in excavating on Broadway is brand new, and looks like an efficient monster. It is now at the west end of the street and a detour at Shepardson court is to be opened to West Maple street to provide for east and west travel during the operations on Broadway. The city water supply is somewhat tinctured by the various operations to which the pipes have been subjected lately, but it is hoped this annoyance will soon wear off.

The Sunday Herald of Boston for April 2, states that the Rev. Dr.
Fred P. Haggard of Boston and Watertown, one of the best known Baptist ministers in the United States, is to be an American pioneer in an important work for the welfare of the German and Austrian prisoners of war now under guard in the camps in Russia and Siberia.
He recently accepted the position from the international committee of the Y. M. C. A. and sailed from New York on April 6 to establish at Petrograd the central office for prison work in Russia, from which he will organize and direct the religious and social work in the camps.
He is accompanied by his wife and two sons, one of whom Roy S. Haggard, until recently a student in Denison, will assume charge of a camp. Dr. Haggard's daughter, Miss Harriet Haggard, who is a traveling secretary of the Student Volunteer movement for Foreign Missions, is a graduate of Denison university and a member of Kappa Phi sorority. She has visited all the leading institutions in New England and was traveling through the middle west, when she cancelled all her engagements in order to be at home with her parents until they should sail. Boston papers as well as denominational papers all over the country have published detailed accounts of Dr. Haggard's enterprise.

A large audience assembled in the lecture room of the Baptist church on Thursday evening, April 6, to hear the address by Dr. W. H. Leslie of Africa. The horrors of the European war are paralleled by the horrors of cannibalism glimpsed in the talk by this man, who has been in the Lord's service in the Congo region, which is one of the blackest remaining in all heathendom. Until within a year and a half ago, the chief over several villages near Dr.
Leslie's station, openly exacted his tribute of human victims, as if it were a tax of so many calves or lambs, to be slaughtered and eaten.
Dr. Leslie, who is a medical missionary, seems to have gained a wonderful hold on these people, and the school of boys numbering some 120, is in a flourishing condition. One can scarcely conceive of the horrors, not to mention the discomforts of life in such primitive surroundings, but Dr. Leslie and his good wife have gone on serenely in the discharge of their duties, and are rewarded by the love and devotion of the converts. They are home on furlough.

Several engagements of interest to Denison people have been officially announced at the respective homes of the young people concerned. Mr. Willard Willis of Washington C. H., to Miss Dahl of the same city; Mr. Clifford Stillwell of Cleveland to Miss Lillian Leete of Detroit, and Mr. Charles Stillwell to Miss Dolfinger, both of Cleveland.

A fourth, which is as yet only local, while not officially announced, is frankly acknowledged by those who know.

The Denison Glee club is enjoying a series of artistic and social successes in its concert tour. Since leaving Granville one week ago today the boys have sung in concert every night to packed houses.

Mention was made of their success in Xenia and in Dayton. Their return engagement in Middletown on Monday night was greeted with a packed house; in Toledo on Tuesday night the Baptist church was crowded with an enthusiastic audience, despite the inconvenience of a tie-up on the street car lines; Wednesday they went to Norwalk; Thursday to Cleveland; tonight they expect to be in Conneaut; Saturday in Youngstown, and Sunday the stem finger of duty beckons them back to Granville to be ready for classes on Monday. It is rumored that several members of the company will appear in new hats on the return trip; notably Bodenweber, tenor soloist; Atkey, baritone soloist; Collier, Ul-man, Thiele, Nellis, Kier and Richardson whose appearance in their respective roles never failed to "bring down the house." This treatment sometimes not always, results in temporary enlargement of the cranium.

Prof. H. D. Fish will deliver the next lecture on "Heridity," probably the closing one, next Monday evening, April 10 in the Granville Opera House. The week's vacation was spent by Prof. and Mrs. Fish with friends in Toledo.

Miss Fannie J. Ferrar, head of the piano department in Denison Conservatory, has returned from a visit to her home in Toledo.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Jones, who have spent the past fortnight in New York City, returned to Bryn Du last evening.

Mrs. Hannah Rogers will celebrate her 99th birthday anniversary on Sunday, April 9. On Saturday afternoon between the hours of two and five o'clock she will receive her friends at the family residence in Shepardson Court. The whole community extends congratulations to Mrs. Rogers who is in the enjoyment of fair health and strength.

At the close of Dr. Leslie's speech last evening, the quarterly business meeting of the Baptist church was held, when standing committees were elected and the budget for the coming year was adopted. The pastor, Rev. Millard Breisford, presided.

Mr. Orley See, formerly of Denison Conservatory, now head of the violin department in the Normal school at Indiana, Pa., was a Granville visitor today, a guest at luncheon of Mr. and Mrs. John Geach.

WANTS THE BEST FAIR EVER HELD

PRESIDENT "JIM" HILL WOULD SET PACE FOR ALL COUNTY
FAIRS IN OHIO.

Will Interest the Business Men in the Annual Exhibition and Wants at Least Two Stake Races.

James J. Hill of Johnstown, president of the Licking County Agricultural Board and candidate for the Democratic nomination for representative, was in the city today on several missions, both political and business.

Mr. Hill stated to an Advocate representative that he hoped to have Licking county set the pace for all county fairs in the future by giving one of the best exhibitions ever seen at a county fair in the state. He will endeavor to interest the business men through their association, and hopes to have them take an active and personal interest in the same as they did several years ago when the best and biggest fair ever taking place in the county was given.

Mr. Hill's pet project is to interest every locality in every township in the county. He states that it is a county affair and that every citizen in the county should be interested. He expects to have a race program which will attract horsemen here from all over the country, and which will include at least two stake races. Liberal purses will be given and lovers of good horse flesh will be attracted to the track every day.

The amusement feature will receive special attention and whatever is secured must come highly recommended. There will be special attractions of various kinds and a midway that will prove highly interesting to all who may attend. President Hill has already begun work on his plans and he hopes to interest not only the business men of Newark but those of every other community in the county.

VILLA FEARS MARKSMANSHIP OF AMERICANS

FOLLOWERS HAD BEEN TAUGHT TO BELIEVE TROOPERS WERE "EASY"

But Since Engagement Bandits' Heart Is Terror Stricken—Cavalry's Regular Drill.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Columbus, N. M., April 7.—Proof of the marksmanship of American soldiers has done more than any other development of the campaign in Mexico to strike fear into the hearts of Villa's followers, according to reports reaching across the border. The straight shooting done at Columbus, that of the little detachment that pursued the bandits across the line after the raid, and that at Guerrero and Agua Calientes, was totally unexpected by the Mexicans. It was utterly different from shooting they had experienced in engagements between factional troops in the five years of civil strife, close followers of the situation assert.

"Villa's followers had been taught that the Americans were weaklings; cowards who were afraid to match their strength with Mexican forces," a naturalized Mexican living here said today. "They believed, in their ignorance, implicitly in themselves and in their ability to conquer any force they should encounter. I am convinced that before the Columbus raid, their feeling was that of contempt of a larger man for a smaller, weaker antagonist."

The first shock was given the Villa bandits when 79 of their men were killed by half as many troopers of the Thirtieth cavalry, who made the sortie across the international line after the raid. But even then they did not realize their own weakness, soldiers and civilians returning from the front reporting that in the towns through which the band passed in its flight, its members boasted of their superiority over the "Gringo" forces. It was at Guerrero that the contrast between the marksmanship of the two forces was demonstrated. There the troopers of the Seventh cavalry, shooting coolly and steadily sent almost every bullet to its mark, while General Hernandez' followers shot wildly as they ran, nearly all shooting over the heads of the enemy. As a result, when the smoke of the engagement had cleared, it was found that only four American cavalymen had been slightly wounded, while fifteen times that number of Villa followers had been killed and as many more wounded.

Army men here point out that, although important, the moral effect upon Villa's command of the display of the American marksmanship is a minor consideration as compared with the effect upon the peons of the district, for it was in Chihuahua that Villa first held sway and it is in Guerrero that many of the natives worship Villa as an idol. Realizing this, General Pershing has taken every precaution to prevent outbreaks among the Villa adherents, and has placed small detachments in towns, along the American line of communication not garrisoned by Carranza troops.

"General Pershing believes that a wholesome respect for the ability of American soldiers will go a long way toward solving his problems with the natives," an officer said today. The marksmanship of the soldiers is the result of a studied effort in the last few years to bring their shooting to the highest point of efficiency. Regular target practice on military reservations and bonuses paid to soldiers who showed merit has done much to accomplish this end.

Each year the army departmental commander designates a period for target practice. The first step in making a marksman is what the soldiers call "the push and pull drill." It consists of calisthenics, training the muscles of the shoulders and arms for steadiness in aiming. Next they are taught to set their pieces properly for distance and to correct for errors in wind gauge in elevation. Each man is graded as to his shooting ability, those men qualifying highest being rated as "expert riflemen," and given an increase in pay of five dollars monthly. A slightly lower grade classes a man as a "sharp-shooter," with an increase of three dollars monthly, while those qualifying as "marks-men" and are entitled to a two dollar increase.

Field firing combat practice, or drill under conditions similar to those in battle, also has been a regular part of the annual work. This practice is competitive, each company being graded on its efficiency, as an organization by the results. In it the company commander is given a tactical problem in the working out of which silhouette targets, usually kneeling or prone, by means of mechanical contrivances are suddenly dropped before the troops in the field and the men are graded on their percentage of hits and misses. The cavalry and infantry drill is similar except that the cavalry practice is complicated by the weaving in and out among the horsemen of targets resembling mounted men.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat, which clogs Kidneys, then Back hurts and Bladder bothers you.

Most folks forget that the kidneys like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

INFORMATION FOR LICKING TAX PAYERS

LISTING AND VALUING OF PROPERTY IN PREPARATION FOR ASSESSOR.

County Auditor Receives Instructions Which Will be Imparted to Assessors Next Monday.

County Auditor J. W. Hursley has called a meeting of all assessors in the county for next Monday at 10 o'clock at which time he will instruct them as to their duties and also distribute their supplies. At the same time he will impress upon them the necessity of following to the letter the requirements as laid down by the tax commission of Ohio. All personal property of whatever description, money, credits, investments in bonds stocks or otherwise, shall be listed for taxation at the true value thereof in money.

Personal property is defined as that which has a value in itself and includes every form of chattel property. The term moneys means moneys in possession or on deposit, subject to withdrawal on demand, and is taxable for the full amount thereof without deduction for debts.

The term credits means the excess of all legal claims and demands over and above the sum of legal bona fide debts and includes notes, mortgages, accounts, shares of stock in building and loan companies and any other claim for money or other valuable thing. Debts may be deducted from credits but not from any other class of property.

The term investments in bonds means money invested in bonds, certificates of indebtedness or other evidence of indebtedness issued by any state, county, city, village, hamlet, township, school district or political division or by any incorporated or unincorporated company.

The term investment in stocks means money invested in the capital or stock of an association, corporation, joint stock company or other company.

DELEGATES CALL UPON FAIRBANKS WITH ASSURANCES

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Indianapolis, April 7.—The thirty Indiana delegates who are pledged to go to Chicago in June and vote for Charles W. Fairbanks as long as his name is before the republican national convention called on Mr. Fairbanks at his home here late yesterday and gave renewed assurance of their allegiance. They were led by Will H. Hays, state chairman, and accompanied by James E. Watson and Harry S. New, nominated for United States senator, and others.

"This is a little trying, my friends," Mr. Fairbanks said, "and I am glad you have come in this informal way for now we can talk informally. I am glad you have come as friends in a common cause, that of Republican success. Our democratic friends, with that ability which amounts almost to genius, have involved the nation in troubles that the republican party and its sane policies only can eliminate."

He said that if the republicans of Indiana decreed that he go before the Chicago convention, he would answer the call.

There is a gun at one end of the Panama Canal, the most powerful at any coast defense fort, with a range of 23 miles. Its weight alone probably would have sunk any of the ships with which Pizarro left the isthmus to conquer Peru, and beyond a doubt if he could have transported it to the land of the Incas one shot would have scared the humble Indians into several centuries of submission.

DESPERATE

CONDITION OF PEONS IN BANDIT-RAVAGED DISTRICT OF CHIHUAHUA.

Unfortunate People Are Facing Actual Starvation—Clothing Needed by American Soldiers.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

El Paso, April 7.—Two Americans, the first to arrive here from the interior for several days, reached El Paso today on a train from Chihuahua City. They say that there was absolute quiet in the state capital when they left, but that everywhere there was apparent a curious feeling of expectancy that important developments were imminent.

As has been the case for a week the whole Mexican situation seems at a standstill pending the outcome of the negotiations between Washington and General Carranza regarding the use of the Mexican railroads by the American expeditionary forces.

Repeated intimations that the supply situation had reached a serious stage received strong support from the reports received from the front and from letters received here by relatives of the men and officers in General Pershing's advance column.

The question of adequate clothing for the American soldiers appears to be becoming as urgent as that of food.

But the plight of the American soldiers fades into insignificance when compared with the stories reaching here through Mexican sources of the desperate conditions prevailing among the peons in the bandit ravaged regions of Southern Chihuahua and Durango toward which Villa is heading. It is said that the unfortunate people in the district around Torreon, where Canuto Cano is upholding the cause of Villa by wholesale looting and murder, are facing actual starvation. A letter which reached here from Torreon, dated six days ago, said in part:

"Industry is at a standstill and the disheartened peons in the country districts have abandoned all efforts to cultivate their farms. If a man was known to have a little grain or beans he could be certain that a band of bandits would pay him a visit, take what he had, and probably his life as well. General Trevino has succeeded in bringing some carloads of food into the city but this relief was only a drop in an ocean of suffering and distress. The peons do not know who to attribute their sufferings to, but they are willing to join any one who will promise them a hearty meal. They have been taught that Villa is their champion and it will be a hard task to disengage their minds of that idea."

There is considerable interest here in persistent rumors that General Gaviro, the Carranza commander in Juarez, is about to be superseded. One story, published in a Mexican paper, declares that General Pablo Gonzales is on his way here from Mexico City and that when he arrives he will take supreme charge of all the Carranza soldiers in the field.

In the absence of any definite news from General Pershing the border has again been reduced to mere speculation as to the whereabouts of Villa and the status of the pursuit. What is regarded as the most hopeful sign is that no news has come from Parral regarding the bandit. If he has not reached that town by this time, there is a chance, it is urged, of the American troops cutting in between him and the south.

EXPERIMENTERS MAKE SAWDUST INTO ALCOHOL

Washington, D. C., April 7.—The story of the conversion of sawdust into alcohol, at a cost of 70 cents per gallon, and the relief thereby of the gasoline famine in the automobile industry is being studied here in a service of the work of the forest products laboratory at Madison, Wisconsin. This summer sawdust will be used by the laboratory in the production of alcohol, a process which is the characteristic work of the laboratory. In view of the proposed increase of the tariff on foreign alcohol, the laboratory is conducting extensive investigations. Mr. Graves, head of the laboratory, said that the work as sent to the senate by the secretary of agriculture includes the following recommendations on improvements in process of development: First, the use of sawdust in the production of alcohol. It is estimated that the country with wood alcohol, a waste of time and charcoal. It consumes annually 1,000,000 gallons of wood, valued at approximately $2,000,000, and produces products valued at $1,000,000. Laboratory tests have developed a method involving practically no outlay for alcohol. The process is a simple one, and an increase in the time of operation which has increased the yield of alcohol 25 per cent. It is estimated that the process will mean an annual increase in value of the raw material of approximately $1,150,000.

ARMY BILL

STILL BEFORE SENATE AFTER VOTING TO RETAIN VOLUNTEER PLAN.

Vote on This Section Was Close, 36 to 34—National Guard Bodies Charged With Lobbying.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, April 7.—With the federal volunteer army plan of the army reorganization bill out of the way after one of the most strenuous fights of the present congress, the senate resumed work on the measure today confronted with prospects of other contests to follow over certain sections.

Final action on the volunteer provision came late yesterday when the senate vote, 36 to 34, to retain the provision in the bill, thereby rejecting an amendment by Senator Lee of Maryland, to eliminate it. The vote was reached at the end of four days debate during which charges of lobbying on the part of national guard organizations against the provisions were made.

Possibility that the volunteer measure may be stricken out when the bill finally emerges from the conference of the senate and house is seen from the result of the close margin by which it was retained. An analysis of the vote in the senate shows that nineteen Democrats and seventeen Republicans voted for the provision. But for the support of the Republicans the Democrats would have voted to eliminate the provision.

The next contest is expected to come over efforts to incorporate in the bill a provision requiring the training of students of the country as a reserve force.

LYNCH LAW

TO BE CONDEMNED IN EDUCATIONAL CAMPAIGN THROUGH SOUTHERN STATES

Conducted by New Association of Church Colleges—18 Institutions Back of Movement.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Birmingham, Ala., April 7.—An aggressive educational campaign against lynch law in the south is to be undertaken immediately by the new association of southern church colleges.

This organization, composed of representatives of 18 southern institutions of learning was formed here last night with the election of officers headed by Dr. C. M. Bishop of the Texas Presbyterian college. It will have the moral support of forty southern educational institutions.

The avowed object of the association, according to its organizers, will be to conduct an active campaign against the "spirit which prompts lynchings."

Statistics were presented at the meeting, which, it was said, showed that during the past thirty years there had been four thousand lynchings, about ninety per cent of which occurred in the south.

CONSCIENCE HURT: WOMAN RETURNED TWENTY DOLLARS.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, April 7.—The treasury department received today a contribution to the "conscience fund" of ten pounds from a woman in Scotland. She wrote that the money was in payment of duties out of which she thought the government had been defrauded more than 20 years ago.

The contribution did not, however, represent the full amount of which the government had been defrauded, the woman wrote, but a fraction. The fraud, she said, supposedly was committed by a relative to whose estate she and others became heirs.

Using her proportionate part of the estate as a basis for computation, the woman estimated that ten pounds would be her share, principal and interest. The other heirs, she wrote, did not agree with her in believing that the supposed fraud should be repaired, as far as possible and were unwilling to send contributions.

Alhambra Tonight and Tomorrow.

John Barrymore, who has played Balkan princes, South American dictators and assorted American characters, has reserved for "The Lost Bridegroom," his latest Famous Players-Paramount Picture, which is the feature at the Alhambra theatre, the role of a crook. It is one of the most laughable and, at the same time, most thrilling stories in which the celebrated star has ever appeared.

At The Mazda.

The popular favorite Anita Stewart is booked by the Mazda for Saturday in "The Painted World," a Broadway star feature.

"On Sunday Edith Storey will appear in "Florida Enchantment."

At its Saturday morning show from 9 to 12 this week will give the popular play which never grows old "Uncle Tom's Cabin" to which the management invites the grown ups as well as the children.

At The Princess Today.

A fine Mutual Master picture will be shown at the Princess Theatre today, "The Outlaw's Revenge," in four acts. It's the tragic story of a famous Mexican general's career. A Keystone comedy, "Fatty's Debut," will be shown in connection.

The Outlaw's Revenge.

At the Princess today. When the young Mexican farmer returned from a visit to a nearby town he found his little sister had been killed defending herself from a forced marriage with a Federal officer, who had won her by casting lots with a boon companion. When, later, his other sister, a cripple, had died of grief this last crushing blow made the brother swear an oath to revenge the death of his dear ones.

"The Garden of Allah."

The massive production of "The Garden of Allah," which will be the attraction at the Auditorium theatre on next Tuesday night, will reveal a play that is tremendous, impressive, illusory and justifying all that has been said of it.

It is a dramatization of Robert Hitchens' great story of the same name, by Mr. Hitchens, assisted by Mary Anderson de Navarro.

The first scene disclosing the desert just before dawn with a single star blinking near the horizon, followed by the uplifting of the sun's great red arc, and the human note struck by the crossing of an immortal caravan—all this gives the keynote of the drama. Follow, then, the bustling human contrast of the scenes in the Hotel de Desert, the street in Beni-Mora and the interior of the native dance house. Then the wonderful garden of Count Antoni, with its palms and fountains and forest visits, its soothing impression of cool and languor. The disguised and distraught man who seeks life at the edge of the desert, has already met the fated woman, and here in the garden of romance the declaration of love is wrung from his unwilling lips by the magic of the moonlight.

Back, then, to the Desert of Mozar, where a fearsome sandstorm is blowing—one of the most wonderful stage effects ever put upon any stage. Here occur the two big dramatic scenes of the play—the Count's penetration of the man's secret in the evening and the man's confession to his bride in the wonderful dawn that follows the surpassingly beautiful representation of the starlit firmament. Then the parting of the man from his bride, who, by his inspiration to duty has helped him to reach the summit of a supreme renunciation.

Says Hot Water Each Day Keeps the Doctor Away

Drink glass of hot water before breakfast to wash out the poisons.

Life is not merely to live, but to live well, eat well, digest well, work well, sleep well, look well. What a glorious condition to attain, and yet how very easy it is if one will only adopt the morning inside bath.

Folks who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when they arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning, before breakfast, drink a glass of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the water and phosphate is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatism; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store which will cost very little but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

INFLUENCE

OF UNITED STATES HAS RISEN WITH DURATION OF EUROPEAN WAR.

Progressive Liberal Leader Tells Reichstag Germany's Interests are Bound with America's.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

London, April 7, 12:42 p. m.—Frederich von Payer of the progressive peoples party, touched upon German-American relations in an address in the Reichstag yesterday from which Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent quotes as follows:

"The political influence of America has risen with the duration of the war. Its growth lays the heaviest responsibility on those European states which caused the war.

"We must have the right to live and to be of some account. We feel ourselves united with America by ties of blood and we hope the American people will give us justice.

"At the present moment America can perhaps render the world the greatest service by keeping out of reach of the flames of war.

"Common dangers and successes bind us to our allies. Co-operation in peace must follow comradeship in war."

Herr von Payer said the disposal of the submarine matter before the Reichstag was satisfactory to his party.

MUCH INTEREST IN STATE WIDE SPELLING BEE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Columbus, April 7.—Interest in the state-wide spelling bee, to be held here in June under the direction of the state department of public instruction is so great that already the 175,000 sheets bearing the list of 7,200 words, was nearly exhausted today. School authorities all over the state, report children are taking an active interest in the contests. Each county will hold its own spelling bee soon and send the county champion to the state meet.

Nearly $200 worth of books will be given as prizes for winners of the state bee, which is to be held here June 2. Cash prizes of $100, have already been announced. A list of the books, which have been donated by publishing companies, as prizes for champion spellers, was given out today. One encyclopedia of 22 volumes is valued at $108.

Boy Was Visiting Aunt In Bellaire; Father Now is Ill

After having been missing from home since last Friday, Leo O'Neill, 15 years old of Webb street, returned yesterday telling his parents that he had been visiting at the home of his aunt in Bellaire. The boy's father Thomas O'Neill has been instituting a search in Central Ohio, eliciting the aid of the newspapers in an effort to locate the boy. Two other East Newark lads who accompanied him when he left last Friday have not yet returned home. Mr. Thomas O'Neill is ill at his home. Read the Wants tonight.

SCHOOL HEADS BLAME MOTHERS

Say Parents Neglect Primary Health Rules

That many school children are being allowed to become chronically constipated through parents' oversight, is a startling fact brought to light by recent investigation by school authorities. Hastily snatched meals so that there will be more time to play, the use of ready-to-eat cereals, and the general neglect of the call of nature are given as principal causes.

It is the duty of mothers to see that children attend to the call of nature before going to school. However, a laxative is sometimes used, and this should be the old reliable, healing, natural vegetable treatment for constipation—castor oil—the only remedy that doesn't form a habit.

In the new jellied form known as CASTOR-JELL it is easy to take. CASTOR-JELL is simply 94 per cent pure castor oil, whipped into jellied form and with a delicious orange flavor added. On sale at R. W. Smith & R. F. Collins' Drug Store, The Castor Products Co., Cleveland, O.

A CHILD DOESN'T LAUGH AND PLAY IF CONSTIPATED

IF PEVISH, FEVERISH AND SICK, GIVE "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS."

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, remember, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills. Give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious fruit laxative, and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs" then look and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

Readers' Viewpoint

Editor of the Advocate:

An attack upon me as an official of the city, by the editor of the American-Tribune, for doing what I think was my duty, and what I think is for the good, not only of the Republican administration, but the general public as well, is at this time very much uncalled for, and I believe it will not meet with the approval of the readers of that paper.

I desire right at this point to call attention to the "support" this editor of the American-Tribune has given the past Republican administration. The first knocking was when the city council of 1914-1915 gave the Ohio Electric permission to move its interurban station from North Park Place to its present location. He wrote articles after articles condemning council for not approving the move. He was right when the citizens, excepting a very few of them, thought it a good move.

The second knock came when the question of municipal ownership of our own electric light plant was brought up and when the citizens said by their vote that the council was right and the editor of the Tribune was wrong.

And again, what did the Tribune have to say concerning the scandal at the patrol station, when the Republican committee promised certain things on the eve of the 1915 election and then failed to carry out its promises.

The editor has given four reasons which he says he might imagine to be the cause of my remarks in council. In answer to his first reason I will ask him to refer to the civil service rules governing the city of Newark, page 47, Section 486-17, and then inquire whether the safety director has done his duty in accordance with the explanation of the civil service commission, secretary, to which the editor referred.

His second reason is that the majority in council is Republican. I am one of those Republicans elected by the people both Republicans and Democrats, to serve the people to the best of my ability and have taken the oath of office to that effect. I was not sworn to comply with the wishes of the Republican party alone, whether they be right or wrong.

Regarding the third reason, I wish to state that I have no personal feeling against the safety director, nor have I a desire to get even nor any personal interest in a friend who prompted me to make the attack. But I do have an interest in the city insofar that where I am cognizant of the fact that a wrong has been done in the enforcement of a rule or a law it is my duty according to the oath of my office to see that such wrong is righted.

As to the fourth reason, what the editor calls "that spectacular business," I want the editor to understand that when a matter is brought before the city council although I am in it, I am not a party to it, I expect to exercise my right to speak upon the subject if I feel like speaking.

As I said I was elected by the people and for the people and if my party colleagues in my judgment shall perpetrate a wrong, it is my duty and privilege to call a halt.

As for the balance of the article, we will await the decisions of the proper courts and not be governed by what the editor of the Tribune may think of the matter.

HEAT FLASHES, DIZZY, NERVOUS

Mrs. Wynne Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her During Change of Life.

Richmond, Va. — "After taking seven bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I feel like a new woman. I always had a headache during the change of life and was also troubled with other bad feelings common at that time—dizzy spells, nervous feelings and heat flashes. Now I am in better health than I ever was and recommend your remedies to all my friends."—Mrs. LENA WYNN, 2812 E. O Street, Richmond, Va.

While Change of Life is a most critical period of a woman's existence, the annoying symptoms which accompany it may be controlled, and normal health restored by the timely use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Such warning symptoms are a sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and inquietude, and dizziness.

For these abnormal conditions do not fail to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

MISS LUCKNER PRAISES THE MASTER MEDICINE

SAYS TANLAC PUT HER BACK TO WORK AFTER SIX-WEEKS' ILLNESS.

"I'm Greatly Indebted to Tanlac and Most Cordially Recommend it."

Miss Elfreda Luckner, a well-known young lady who is a clerk at Billingslea's Ideal Exchange, and who resides at 582 Prior avenue, is enthusiastic in her praise of Tanlac she says:

"On account of illness I had to temporarily give up my position and was confined at my home for six weeks and could find nothing to give me relief until I found Tanlac. I have taken four bottles of that great medicine and I now am entirely well and back at work. I had rheumatism, my blood in bad condition, was run down and out of sorts generally. Now I'm heavier than before I was taken sick, appetite fine, sleep soundly, and for all of this I'm indebted to Tanlac and I cordially recommend it." Tanlac is equally as beneficial in stomach, liver and kidney troubles, a peevish Spring and nerve tonic.

Tanlac is demonstrated at Hall's Drug Store, and is for sale at Utica by P. H. Richardson, Pataskala by J. R. Strine, Granville by W. P. Ullman; Hebron, by the Hebron Drug Co., Croton by J. W. Haines, Johnstown by C. S. Howard. Adv.

OHIO CROPS

OFFICIAL REPORT OF SECRETARY OF STATE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE.

Wheat and Corn not up to Average—Backward Season for Fruit—Live Stock.

Wheat per bush $ 1.07
Corn per bush .71
Barley per bush .51
Oats per bush .46
Rye per bush .80
Potatoes per bush 1.07
Hay per ton 10.0

The present condition of Ohio's Wheat Crop is poor. Correspondents estimate it at 66 per cent compared with an average. One month ago condition was reported at 71 per cent. April first last year condition was estimated at 88 per cent. Generally over the State seeding was late and the plant had made but small growth at commencement of winter. Early snow wheat in fair condition. The plant appears to have suffered from insufficient snow protection and has been further damaged during past month by alternate thawing and freezing. Reports indicate that many acres will be plowed up and the fields put to other crops.

The condition of corn in Ohio is estimated at 86 per cent compared with an average. The crop was in poor condition for cribbing owing to continued wet weather. During winter the unharmed corn suffered damage to the extent of 20 per cent.

The backward season has made it impossible to accurately estimate fruit prospect compared with a normal yield. Prospect estimated at 71 per cent. Degree of damage refers almost wholly to peach crop.

The present season is very backward. Plowing and spring work retarded by the unfavorable weather conditions. Live stock wintered well.

Bowser One Pound Under Weight Required For Friday's Match; Big Crowd Indicated by Sale

With both principals in tonight's wrestling bout claiming to be within the weight limit agreed upon in their articles signed a week ago, and with an advance sale of seats indicating a monster crowd, Newark wrestling fans are on edge today. Many Newark men who have followed the game this winter, without backing down in their loyalty to Bowser, express their doubts as to his ability to win in the no limit engagement tonight. There is also much interest manifested in the efforts of the two men to make the 165 pounds required. This weight will be made at ringside Bowser yesterday declared he had reduced his weight to 164 pounds and Kilonis claims he has reached 165. Both men agree that such a task is a difficult one and neither of them are real crazy to attempt it again.

At the Auditorium last night it was said that the advance sale of seats was heavier than that for any previous matches. This will be the last match of the season, at least until after Easter and Newark fans wish to get in on the last chance to see fast mat artists at work.

SCHUMPF LANDS BALL CLUB
IN CAPITAL CITY LEAGUE
Owing to the failure of Piqua to post its forfeit money for the coming season, that club was dropped from the Capital City League at a meeting of the league held in Columbus last night. The Newark club, which assumed the franchise, was represented by Manager Eddie Schumpf, who claims that with the men he has lined up at present he will make things interesting for any club in the league. Schumpf states that the club will play under the name of the "Fitzsimmons".

DUCK SHOOTERS MAY LAND
IN FEDERAL COURT
Hunters who feel free to shoot ducks at Ruckeye Lake because no state law protects them may find themselves facing a United States court judge. Toledo, April 7.—Starting with a good lead, Hughie Heal, Toledo, easily defeated Johnny Moore, Chicago, here last night in an Interstate three cushion billiard league match by a score of 50 to 40.

FOREIGN DRIVERS TO SEEK U. S. PRIZE -MONEY; FRENCHMAN TO HEAD INVADERS

Rene Thomas.

Having tasted of American prize money and found it good, a small band of European race drivers are planning an invasion of this country this month. The invaders will be headed by Rene Thomas, the Frenchman who captured the 1914 Indianapolis classic.

EULOGIES GIVEN VON HINDENBURG

Berlin, April 7.—(By wireless to Sayville.)—The fiftieth anniversary of the entrance of Field Marshal von Hindenburg into military service is made the occasion of many tributes to the famous soldier. Emperor William has sent a portrait of himself to the Field Marshal. Several members of the Reichstag delivered addresses eulogizing him.

ROUSCH GREAT HELP TO GIANT OUTFIELD

Eddie Rousch.

Eddie Rousch, who came from the Federal league with Bennie Kauff, is bound to prove a big help to the Giant outfield. He is a hard hitter and a remarkable fielder. He starts at the crack of the bat and his judgment of fly balls is uncanny. He was a holdout for a while, but he finally came to terms with the New York club.

WELSH READY FOR MATCH WITH RITCHIE MITCHELL

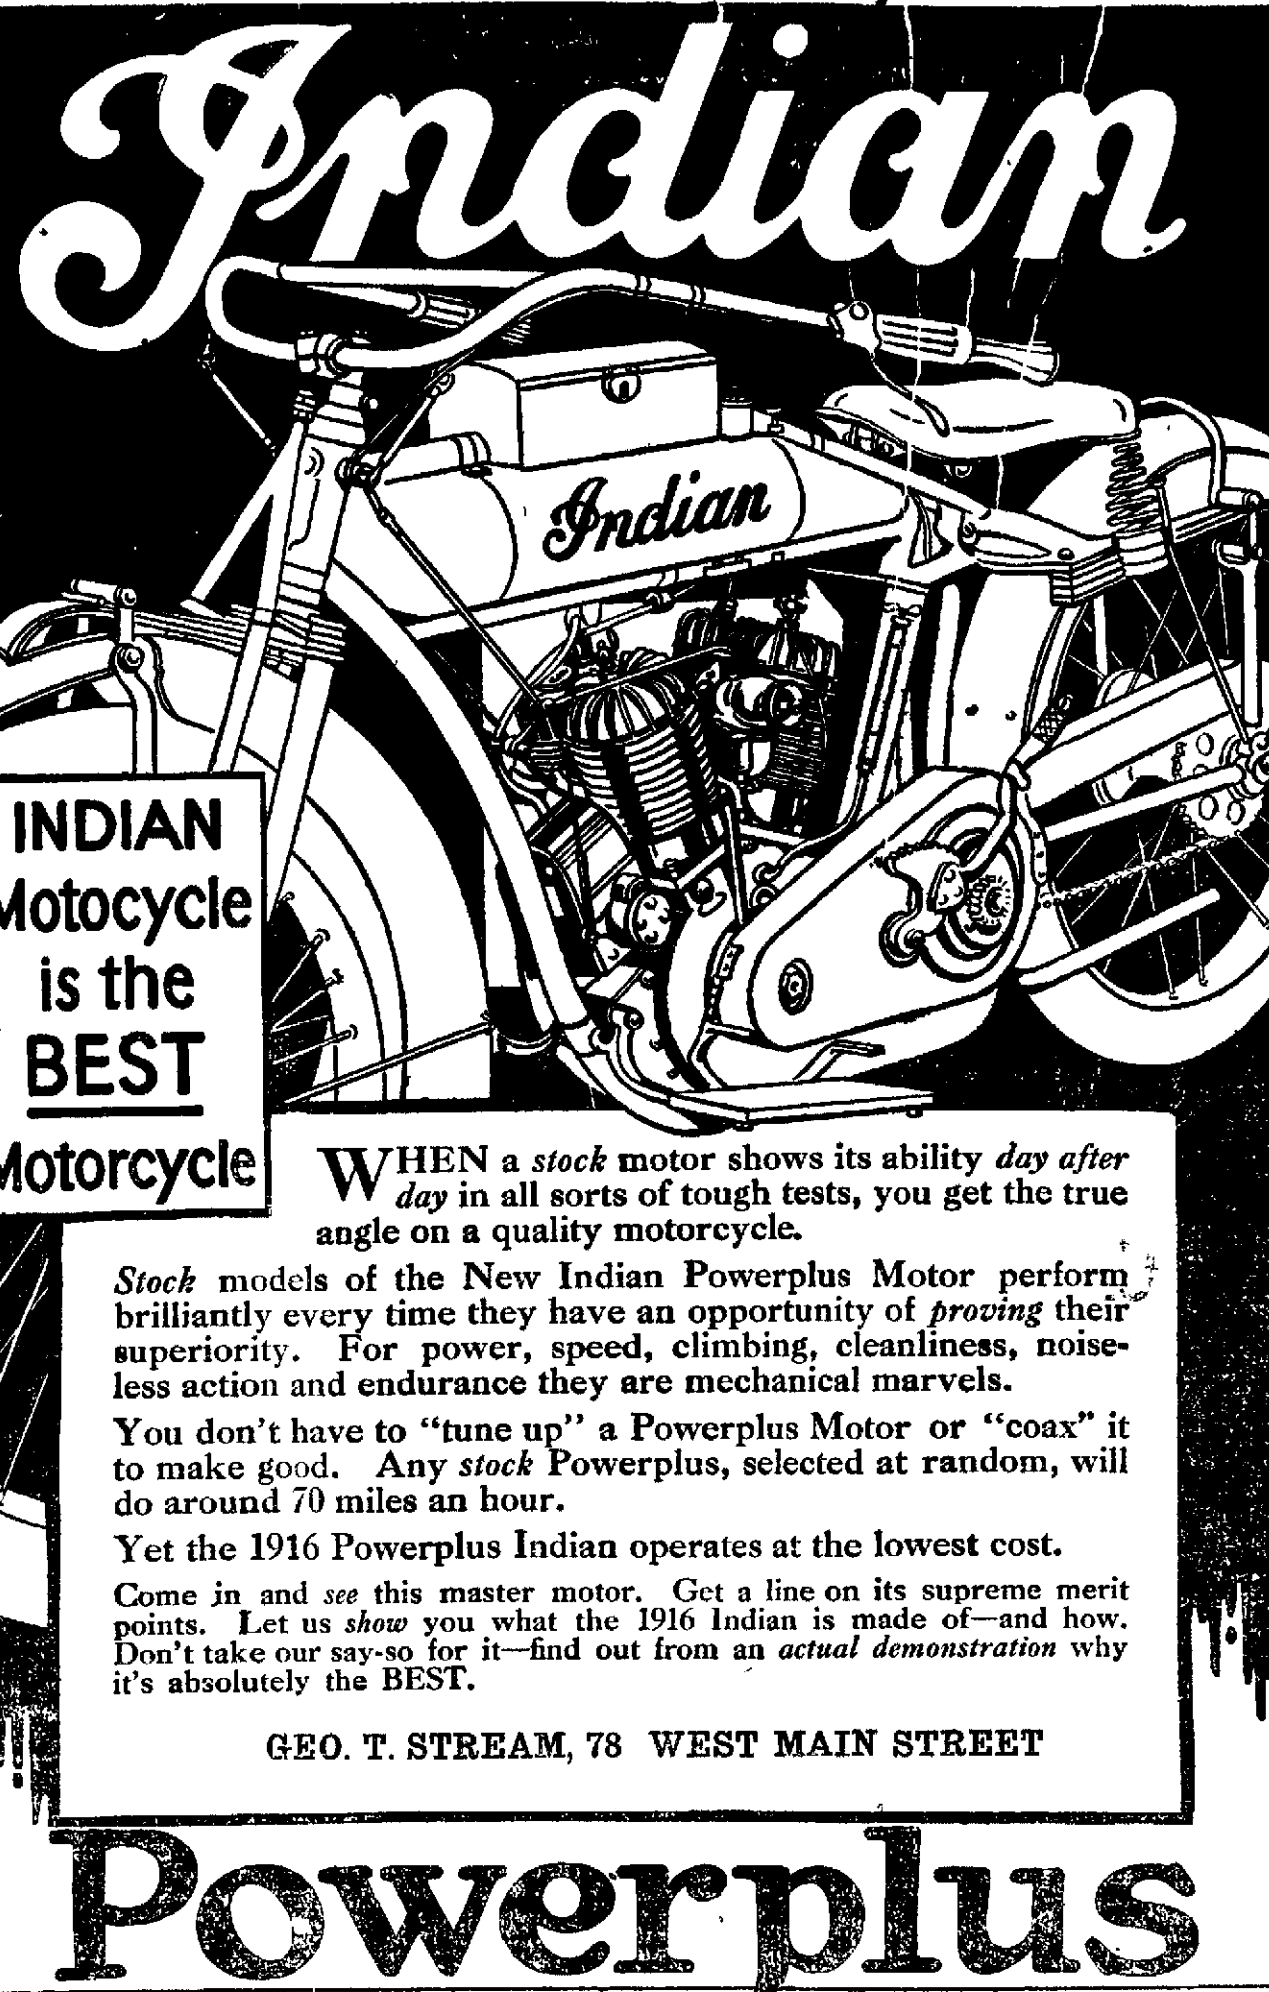

Associated Press Telegram
Milwaukee, Wis., April 7.—Freddie Welsh, lightweight champion, and Ritchie Mitchell, of Milwaukee are ready for their ten-round no-decision contest here tonight. The Milwaukee boxer will enter the ring at about 125 pounds while Welsh is expected to tip the beam at close to 140 pounds, the contest being catch weights.

Hal Chase, famous first baseman, now belongs to the Cincinnati Reds. His purchase from Messrs. Smaller and Powers, of Federal League fame, was effected yesterday by August Herrmann and others interested in the Cincinnati Baseball Club. The purchase price was not announced.

Indian

INDIAN Motorcycle is the BEST Motorcycle

WHEN a stock motor shows its ability day after day in all sorts of tough tests, you get the true angle on a quality motorcycle.

Stock models of the New Indian Powerplus Motor perform brilliantly every time they have an opportunity of proving their superiority. For power, speed, climbing, cleanliness, noiseless action and endurance they are mechanical marvels.

You don't have to "tune up" a Powerplus Motor or "coax" it to make good. Any stock Powerplus, selected at random, will do around 70 miles an hour.

Yet the 1916 Powerplus Indian operates at the lowest cost. Come in and see this master motor. Get a line on its supreme merit points. Let us show you what the 1916 Indian is made of—and how. Don't take our say-so for it—find out from an actual demonstration why it's absolutely the BEST.

About Colors

This season it's not so much the color you select but how long it will stay that color.

While others are evading the issue, the 'UNITED' absolutely guarantees every garment it produces to be of fast color.

We feel proud and we believe pardonably so, of being able to do this at our price---

CHARTER MEMBERS YUKA KA SOOTA CLUB

Don't embarrass the society editor by calling her the meaning of "Yuka Ka Soota." Even the members of the club claim they do not know the meaning of the queer combination of letters. When the club was organized about two years ago, a girl friend of one of the members was asked to suggest a name. She said "Yuka Ka Soota" just like that, and so the club was named. It was as good as any other and adopting the name suggested saved a lot of trouble. It is purely a social club. Its meetings are held at the homes of members every other Tuesday. In the accompanying reproduction from a photograph are shown only the charter members of the club. They are posing from left to right, top row, Myron Cline, Donald Helms, Albert Elliott, Albert Black, George Morrison; middle row, Edgar A.

Smith, (vice president), Searl Nethers, (president), Raymond Crawford, (secretary-treasurer); seated, William Albright, Gerald Helmske. The suspicion might be well founded that the club is an anti-matrimony organization because one other charter member, Harold Martin, was not permitted to sit with the "old bachelors" for the above photograph. Mr. Martin recently was married, though this may not be the reason he was ruled out.

HETUCK CHAPTER NOW ENGAGED IN BELGIUM RELIEF

In co-operation with the national organization of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Hetuck Chapter of Newark is making an effort to assist in the campaign for raising funds for the Belgian people of Belgium and France.

On Saturday the 1st of April, the Hetuck Chapter of Newark is holding a street fair for the purpose of raising seven cents for the relief of the Belgian people. The fair will be held in the work of relief. It is a work in which all citizens should have an interest. Women and children are desperately in need of the warmest of clothes in Belgium. Americans have done much for the relief of stricken Belgium. They must do more. The Belgians are doing all that they can to help themselves, but the conditions are all against them. The industries are paralyzed. There is no money for a wage. The people are unable to do anything for their own support. The appeal for help from the country is a loud and urgent one.
